Maid falls from roof, dies

By Staff Correspondent
A teenage maid was killed after she reportedly fell down from the roof-top of a five-storey building at Gulshan in the city yesterday.
The dead was identified as Selina Akter, 13, daughter of Abul Hossain, a resident of Barguna, hospital sources said.
Selina, who had been working as maid at the flat of one Kamal Akter for the last four months, went to the roof with some wet clothes at about 9 am. But she suddenly fell down from the roof and died on the spot, police said.
Neither hospital sources nor police could confirm exactly how she fell down.
The body was sent to Dhaka Medical College Hospital morgue for autopsy.

Steps taken for privatisation of Biman

Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism Engineer Mosharraf Hossain said yesterday that the government has taken necessary steps for privatisation of Biman for making it commercially and financially viable, reports BSS.
The minister was speaking as chief guest at the inaugural session of the two-day system customer services conference '98 of Biman Bangladesh Airlines at Biman head office.
Secretary, Civil Aviation and Tourism Mohammad Omar Hadi and managing director, Biman Air Commodore M Rafiqul Islam also spoke. Director, customer services Muhammad Abdus Salam welcomed the guests and gave a brief resume of the state of affairs of the directorate with reference to various aspects of customer services.
Engineer Mosharraf Hossain categorically said, "We have no other choice but to go for privatisation with strategic partnership."
The minister said "we must have to satisfy our valued customers and by doing this we can increase the numbers of passengers and enhanced revenue as well."
"We have still many areas in which we can improve our services," he pointed out.
