Rajuk telephone cabinet damaged

Some 156 telephones at Rajuk Bhaban and adjacent areas went out of order after some unruly people damaged the telephone cabinet on Saturday evening, reports APB.
The cabinet having 400 pairs of primary and 600 pairs of secondary cable connections has been completely damaged in the attack. Steps have already been taken to restore the lines.
The authorities regretted the temporary inconvenience caused to the subscribers by the incident, said a press release yesterday.

Gaebana janaza of Jubo League leader held

KHULNA, Nov 8: Gaebana Janaza of the Jubo League leader who was killed in Dhaka yesterday was held today at the Khulna Shaheed Hadis Park, reports BSS.
The namaj-e-janaza was attended by leaders and workers of Awami League and its front organisations including State Minister for Relief and Disaster Management Talukder Abdul Khalque.
Later a huge procession was brought out in the city to protest the killing of the Jubo League leader and act of terrorism perpetrated by the main opposition activists in Dhaka yesterday.
Later, the state minister addressed a rally held at the Shaheed Hadis Park. Talukder said that BNP has been pursuing acts of violence across the country in a bid to destabilise the government. He called upon the Awami League leaders and workers to resist and thwart any such move from any quarter.

DU exams postponed

US lawyers' team, Khasru exchange views on judiciary

The visiting US lawyers' delegation called on Law Minister Abdul Matin Khasru at his office yesterday, reports UNB.
The delegation, led by David Kelly, a law attorney and former Republican candidate for Governor of Vermont, exchanged views on various issues relating to law and judiciary of the two countries.
The Law Minister apprised the delegation about various ongoing reform projects in the fields of the country's law and judiciary.
They also discussed matters relating to Law Reform Commission, establishment of Human Rights Commission, office of the Ombudsman and Grameen Court in Bangladesh.
The Law Minister told the delegation that the government has set up a Judicial Training Institute for imparting training to the officials of judiciary. He said the proposed Legal Aid Bill, aiming to help the poor seeking justice, will be placed in parliament during its current session.
The delegation members also included former State Senator of Vermont Mary Just and Law Attorney Patrik Biggam.
