Stabbed teacher dies at DMCH

By Staff Correspondent

A school teacher, wounded critically when a gang of hoodlums stabbed him in Noakhali Saturday night, succumbed to his injuries at the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) last night.

Hospital sources identified the deceased as Nizam Uddin, 35, son of Ali Haider Bapari, a resident of village Sahajadpur under Sadar thana in Noakhali.

The motive behind the killing could not be known immediately.

Quoting relatives of the victim, hospital sources said, the gang of still unidentified men attacked Nizam with machetes while he was returning home from Janataganj Bazar at about 11:30 pm Saturday. The stabbed him indiscriminately. Nizam was admitted to Noakhali Sadar Hospital with critical wounds, sources added.

As his condition started deteriorating yesterday morning, Nizam was shifted to DMCH where he died at about 8 pm last night.

MOU with Japanese university signed

Bangladesh and Ritsumeikan Asia-Pacific University signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) at Kyoto on Saturday for broad-based cooperation in the education sector, reports UNB.

Under the MOU, the Asia Pacific University will offer scholarships for Bangladeshi students, a message from Bangladesh Mission in Tokyo said.

The university which would start functioning from the year 2000 would cater to the largest number of students from Asia and the Pacific region studying in any Japanese private university so far and the medium of instruction would be both English and Japanese.

The MOU is expected to help human resources development programme of Bangladesh and open avenues for Bangladeshi students wishing to study in Japan.

Bangladesh Ambassador Rashed Ahmed and President of Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Masateru Ohnami signed the MOU.

Police arrest 4 in Ctg

CHITTAGONG, Nov 8: Chittagong Metropolitan Police (CMP) today arrested four persons and recovered one light gun with three rounds of cartridge from different parts of the city, reports BSS.

According to CMP sources, Kaiser and Jalal were arrested with arms and ammunition from Boubazar under Chandgaon police station.

Kotwali police in a separate drive arrested Mohammad Dulal and Nipa Dhar from Firingibazar area on criminal charges, the sources added.

Arrest of BNP leader condemned

City BNP convenor Sadek Hossain Khoka has condemned the arrest of party city leader Abu Mohammed Mainu from his residence on Saturday night, reports UNB.

In a statement yesterday, Khoka alleged that Mainu was arrested without any specific allegation.

Accusing the government of launching attack on the BNP public meeting at Paltan Maidan, he warned that the government would have to face serious consequences if it does not refrain from its repressive acts.

The BNP city convenor demanded immediate release of Mainu and other arrested BNP activists.
