Roma tumble

ROME, Nov 13: AS Roma stumbled out of the Italian Cup on Thursday when they were beaten 5-4 in a penalty shootout by Serie B side Atalanta Bergamo, reports Reuters.

Striker Marco Delvecchio. Roma's top scorer this season with eight goals, missed the decisive spot kick which gave Atalanta their surprise victory at the Olympic Stadium.

The two sides had entered the match with a goal each from the first leg and Atalanta took a 1-0 lead on the night thanks to a superbly executed chip from Nicola Caccia after 77 minutes. Francesco Totti equalised for Roma with a simple tap in three minutes later to ensure the match went to extra time. The scores were still level at 1-1, and 2-2 on aggregate, after 120 minutes. Both sides scored their opening two penalties before visiting 'keeper Davide' Pinato dived to his right to save Delvecchio's

Christian Zenoni sealed Atalanta's win with his side's fifth spot kick to ensure a quarterfinal berth against league leaders Fiorentina.

Irish angry at FIFA

DUBLIN. Nov (Reuters/Internet): The Football Association of Ireland (FAI) expressed outrage on Friday at FIFA's decision to allow English clubs to field their Irish players this weekend despite Ireland's international fixture against Yugoslavia in Belgrade next Wednesday.

English Premier league club Charlton asked FIFA for permission to hold on to Ireland's Mark Kinsella and Yugoslav Sasa Ilic, claiming that the necessary paperwork had not been submitted in time for the re-arranged group eight European championship qualifier.

FIFA found in their favour late on Thursday, over-ruling their own "five day" regulation which allows national team managers to assemble their teams early in order to prepare for international matches.

Ireland will also have to prepare without Manchester United duo Roy Keane and Denis Irwin for the game on November 18.

"We have received this message with utter disbelief. It is clear that FIFA have decided not to apply their own rules in this particular situation," FAI Chief Executive Bernard O'Byrne said in a statement.

He said that while the FA would abide by the decision, its confidence in FIFA treating all been "seriously damaged".

Romario misses yet again

Nov 13 (Reuters/ internet): Romario missed his third penalty of the Brazilian championship for Flamengo on Thursday and his mistake contributed to another club losing their First Division

Brazil's 1994 World Cup hero, who has scored 14 goals in the championship, saw his shot saved as Flamengo lost 2-1 to Parana on the final day of the competition's qualifying stage. The win lifted Parana above America-Belo Horizonte who were held 1-1 at home by Palmeiras and went down as a result. Parana had begun the day in the relegation zone, one point behind America.

The 24 teams play each other once in the qualifying stage. The top eight go into the quar-terfinals and the bottom go down.

Cruzeiro, who beat Juventude 5-0, and Gremio, 4-2 winners over Portuguesa, became the last two quarterfinalists. They joined Corinthians. Palmeiras. Coritiba, Santos.

Rios nearer to number one

SANTIAGO, Nov 13 last Sunday, they were moved to (Reuters/Internet): Chile's Marcelo Rios moved closer to ending the year as the world number one on Thursday with a solid victory over Argentina's Martin Rodriguez in the second round of Chile's Chevrolet Cup tennis tournament.

Rios, number two in the world behind Pete Sampras of the United States, humbled Rodriguez in straight sets in ex-actly one hour in front of a 4,000-strong partisan crowd in his home town.

If Rios reaches the final of the Chilean championship, he will enter the season-ending championships in Hannover on November 24 as world number one, after Sampras lost in the first round of the Stockholm

Open on Wednesday.
Sampras, who won the Hanover title last year, will also have a lot of points to defend in Germany, handing Rios an even better chance of pipping him by the end of the season.

Ex-world number one Jim Courier also went through to the final stages of the Chilean championship, defeating Slovakia's Dominik Hrbaty 7-6, 6-4 in a hard-fought 90-minute

UEFA cancels youth tourney in Israel

JERUSALEM, Nov 13: European soccer's governing body UEFA has called off an international youth tournament scheduled to be held in Israel next week, an official said, reports Reuters.

Israel youth team coach Zeev Zeltzer said on Thursday security concerns voiced by the English Football Association over the situation in the Gulf moved UEFA to postpone the European under-18 championship qualifying tournament.

It was to have been held in Ashdod, Ashkelon and Kirvat Gat next week and involved England, Sapin, Andorra and Israel.

This was a sudden decision which took us completely by surprise," Zeltzer said. He said an alternative venue was likely to be found for the tournament. "Of course, we are very disappointed by the cancellation a lot of preparations have been made by the Israel Football Association but the decision is ou of our hands." During the 1991 Gulf War

Iraq fired dozens of scud missiles at Israel, killing one per son, wounding scores of others and causing widespread prop erty damage in the Tel Aviv

Chilean Marcelo Rios in action against Argentine Martin Rodriguez.

Internet): Hours after learning she had a spot in the season-ending Chase Championships. Steffi Graf needed three sets to get past Russia's Elena Likhovtseva on Thursday night at the 450,000 dollar Ad-vanta Championships indoor tennis event Graf struggled early but pulled out a 6-7. 6-2 6-4 victory. The German took a 5-2 lead in the third set before losing the next two games, with Likhovtseva serving to even the score. But Graf earned the win with a service break of Likhovtseva, who double faulted on match point. The victory moved Graf into a tough quarterfinal matchup against second seed Martina Hingis of Switzerland, who replaced Graf atop the rankings in March 1997. Hingis recently lost the top spot to American Lindsay Davenport.

Graf did not need to take the court to earn a berth in next week's prestigious Chase Championships. She received help from fifth seed and former archrival Monica Seles, who ousted Japan's Ai Sugiyama 6-3. 7-5 to reach the quarterfi-

Chase Championships, Graf could set up a second-round showdown with Seles next week by defeating her first-round opponent, third seed and defending champion Jana Novotna. Seles drew Russian teenager

Anna Kournikova as her firstround opponent at the Chase Championships. The 29-year-old Graf has battled a series of injuries this year, but may have turned the corner last week by winning the Sparkassen Cup in Leipzig. Germany. She has taken 13 of her last 14 matches and last week's triumph was her 105th career singles title, the most among active players.

Her other win came at the Pilot Pen International, which was a tuneup for the U.S. Open. Graf underwent surgery after losing in the fourth round of the U.S. Open.

In other matches Thursday. sixth seed Nathalie Tauziat of France defeated American Lisa Raymond 6-3, 6-1 but seventh seed Patty Schnyder of Switzerland was not as fortunate, losing to American qualifier Amy Frazier 6-3, 6-1.

Greg takes another step

STOCKHOLM, Nov 13: Fourth seed Greg Rusedski powered past American Vince Spadea 6-1, 6-4 on Thursday to move closer to a place in this month's ATP Tour championship in Hanover, reports Reuters.

The Canadian-born Briton routed Spadea in the first set, his heavy serving giving the American no chance to adjust on the fast indoor court. When Rusedski broke Spadea's serve early in the second set, he seemed to have victory in his hands.

But Spadea had not given up and some sharp returns forced Rusedski into a succession of baseline rallies as he broke back in the sixth game. Rusedski then showed his class and broke Spadea right back on the way to a comfortable victory and a place in the quarterfinals against Canadian Daniel Nestor, who upset sixth seed Cedric Pioline of France 6-3, 3-6, 6-3. "I think the first set was not a true reflection of Vince's play and I think he played better in the second," Rusedski said. "Vince is a very difficult opponent. He's one of the most talented Americans coming up and I expected a tougher match.
