Roberto Baggio

(Italian football superstar) "Obviously, everyone wants to play from the first minute. but if every match were to finish like this, I'd be happy to play just 20 minutes."

After his double strike against Real Madrid in a Champions League match won the game for Inter Milan. Baggio only played for 20 minutes after coming in as a substitute.

Windies A in command

BANGALORE, Nov 29: India A were bundled out for 103 runs in their first innings, giving West Indies A a vital lead of 125 runs on the second day of the first 'unofficial' Test at Chinnaswamy Stadium here today. reports PTI.

The visitors, who made 228 in their first knock, have taken an overall lead of 285 runs, ending the day on 160 for the loss of seven wickets, on a day which saw as many as 16 wickets fall.

Resuming from the overnight score of 19 for one. the hosts never really stuck to their task, as skipper lan Bishop (four for 38), Pedro Collins (3 for 42) and Carl Tuckett (2 for 19) ripped through the batting. The only saving grave for the home side was a sparkling 41 by Tamil Nadu opener S Ramesh, who hit five fours, including three off a Bishop over. Barring Ramesh and Mumbai's Amol Muzumdar (15), all the other players failed to reach double figures.

The visitors started their second innings on a disappointing note as both the openers-Adrian Griffith and Sherwin Campbell, were dismissed for 14 each.

Wavel Hinds followed soon with 10 and Richard Smith for one but the fifth wicket stand of 67 runs between Gayle and Sarwan took them to safety.

England face uphill battle

Dramatic day 2 at WACA

PERTH, Nov 29: England were batting to avoid defeat in the second Ashes Test today after an other batting collapse triggered by Australian fast bowler Damien Fleming, reports Reuters. England, 128 behind on first innings, slumped to 67 for five at one stage in their second innings before reaching 126 for five at the close on the second

Fleming captured four for 16 in 11 overs to add to his first innings figures of five for 46.

Mark Ramprakash, who made 26 not out, and Graeme Hick, who responded to the crisis with an aggressive, unbeaten 42, batted through the final 52 minutes of the day in an unbroken sixth wicket stand of 59. That saved England from the prospect of becoming the first team in 53 years to lose a Test within two days. The performance by England's batsmen ruined what would otherwise have been a glorious fightback from England's bowlers on a bouncy WACA pitch favouring the pacemen.

Defending their inadequate first innings total of 112, England cleaned up Australia's last six wickets for just 31 runs to dismiss the home country for Alex Tudor, playing in his first Test, led the way to finish with four for 89 after taking four wickets in 21 balls in a fiery spell. But Tudor's good work was undone by another inept performance by some of England's top order batsmen. Fleming again did the damage, dispatching Mark Butcher, Nasser Hussain, Alec Stewart and Michael Atherton before leaving the field in the final session with a thigh injury. Butcher, who made a duck in the first innings after scoring a century in the drawn first Test, was the first to go when he edged a Fleming leg-cutter straight to Ricky Ponting at third slip for Hussain, who made just six in the first innings, followed with the total on 11 when Fleming trapped him leg before wicket for one.

Stewart, top scorer with 38 in the first innings, failed to repeat his performance when he was caught by Mark Taylor at first slip for a duck as England slumped to 15 for three.

Atherton was the single batsman able to withstand Fleming before the swing specialist produced a beauty that took the former skipper's out side edge. He made 35.

In the process Atherton crossed 6000 runs. Colin Miller chipped in to claim the wicket of John Crawley, caught by Justin Langer at short leg for 15 in the final hour, to complete a miserable day for the tourists. Ramprakash and Hick batted cautiously through most of the last session before Hick launched a furious assault just before the close, smashing two sixes off Jason Gillespie in an over that cost the paceman 23. Earlier, Tudor took his first Test wicket when he bowled Steve Waugh for 33 with a ball that cut back in and hit the top of the off bail.

He dismissed Waugh's twin brother Mark for 36 shortly afterwards when he found the edge with an outswinger, then picked up Ponting and Glenn McGrath to cap a fine debut as Australia collapsed after starting the day at 150 for three.

Tudor the hope-bearer "self that I am actually here."

PERTH. Aus-Iralia. Nov 29 Reuters/ Internet): Alex Tudor may be the genuinely fast bowler for whom England have long been searching, according to their coach David Lloyd. Tudor, 21, marked his Test debut in the second Ashes match with a burst of four wickets in 21 balls as Australia lost their last six first innings wickets for 31 on the second day at the WACA on Sunday. Surrey paceman Tudor, who finished with four for 89, was picked for the tour essentially to gain experience but forced his way into the Test side with some impressive bowling during practice. "Everybody knows we're always striving to produce quick bowlers and I think we've finally found one," Lloyd said.

Tudor said: "I'm just delighted to be representing my country.

"I was a bit nervous yesterday but wasn't too bad today but sometimes I have to pinch my-

Tudor, whose parents both come from the Caribbean, also made an impression with the bat, scoring an unbeaten 18 in England's first innings of 112 on the first day on Saturday.

He then bowled well without taking a wicket later that day before his fortunes changed when he took the second new ball after lunch on Sunday.

He claimed his first Test scalp when he bowled Steve Waugh for 33 with a ball that cut back in and hit the top of the off bail He then dismissed Waugh's twin brother Mark for 36 shortly afterwards when he found the edge with an outswinger, then sent back Ricky Ponting and Glenn McGrath to catches behind in his devastating 21-ball spell.

PESHAWAR, Nov 29: commission probing matchfixing allegations rocking Pakistani cricket has asked the government for another month to complete its work, officials said Saturday, reports AFP.

Akram achieves 350 wkts

PESHAWAR. Pakistan, Nov 29:

Star Pakistani paceman Wasim Akram completed a milestone 350 third day of the first Test against Zimbabwe.

Neil Johnson was his 350th victim in his 82nd Test, Wasim becoming only the eighth bowler to complete that goal. India's Kapil Dev holds the love to do this as much as anything," Wasim told AFP. Wasim, 32, made his debut in 1984-85 and in only his second Test took 10 wickets against New Zealand at Dunedin, the player ever to do so. Under the guidance of former Pakistani cricket hero Imran Khan, Wasim became a world class fast bowler in Tests, one-day and English county cricket. Contracted by English county Lancashire in 1987. Wasim led them to second position in the 1998 season. He formed a lethal pair with Waqar Younis and motivated Wasim has a tally of wickets 363 in 254 limited-over internationals, the most for any bowler.
