BARCELONA, Spain, Nov 29 (Reuters/ Internet): Nigerian youngster Haruna Babangida hinted at a bright Barcelona future on Saturday as he turned in a match-winning display for the club's B team on his full debut as a professional.

As the club prepared to lift the curtain on their centenary celebrations, 16-year-old midfielder Babangida showed why Barcelona have slapped a $5 million price tag on him.

Partnership up to 2002

HANOVER, Germany, Nov 29 (Reuters/ Internet): The ATP Tour has extended its partner-ship with Mercedes-Benz, which will stay the main sponsor of the organisation running the professional circuit o men's tennis until 2002.

The ATP Tour and Mercedes-Benz, whose current three-year contract runs to the end of 1999. have agreed another three-year deal. ATP Tour chief executive officer Mark Miles said.

ATP rankings for 2000

HANOVER, Germany, Nov 29 (Reuters/ Internet): Olympic and Davis Cup matches could contribute points for new men's tennis rankings to be launched in 2000, ATP Tour chief executive officer Mark Miles said on Sunday.

"We have started discussions with the International Olympic Committee and the International Tennis Federation on that issue and we believe those discussions will be fruitful," he

From 2000, there will be a 12-month points race with all the players beginning the year at zero and accumulating points throughout the calendar year.

The new system will be simelite season-ending 3.5 million pler to follow than the complicated current one, under which players have to defend points won the previous year.

Miles said the ATP Tour was taking steps to work more closely with the International Tennis Federation (ITF) to bring changes to the game.

Fog intervention

BANGKOK, Nov 29 (Reuters/ Internet): Fog forced a plane carrying the Asian Games soccer teams of India and Nepal to make an unscheduled stop in southern Thailand on Sunday, a Thai television station said.

ITV television said a Thai Airways internal flight carrying the two teams was supposed to land in the morning at Trang, where the two teams are to play their opening group matches of the Games.

Corretja stops Sampras

29: The year of his historic achievement ended less gloriously for

Pete Sampras on Saturday, in an error-filled loss to the tenacious Spaniard, Alex Corretja, in the semifinals of the ATP Tour World Championship, reports AP. Corretja beat the top-ranked Sampras 4-6, 6-3, 7-6 (7-3), saving three match points along His victory produced a historic all-Spanish final at the dollar championship, with Corretja facing Carlos Moya, a good friend. Moya, the French Open champion, defeated Tim Hen-man 6-4, 3-6, 7-5. Despite his loss, Sampras is assured of holding to No. 1 for a record sixth consecutive year.

"It's a tough way to end it, I must admit," Sampras said. "I had mixed emotions, coming so close to winning, being in the final. But the achievement of doing it six years in a row, and the fans giving me a nice ovation, it was a very good feeling. "But it wasn't the way I wanted to end the year," Sampras said.

"Although I felt I wasn't playing as well as I was through the week, I felt like I was playing well enough to win. He hit some unbelievable passing shots," said Sampras, who had not dropped a set in his three round-robin matches.

But he had 50 unforced errors against Corretja, who only Sampras was seeking his fifth title in the elite tournament after winning the cham-last two years. Only once before have two Spaniards contested a final on any surface other than clay, and that was at the start of this year when Corretja beat Felix pionship in 1991, 1994 and the Mantilla in Dubai. The ATP championship is played on an indoor hard court. "We have been told by people all over the world that we can only play on clay," said Corretja, who is ranked No. 6 in the

"Now they have to show us some respect.

Sampras accomplished his main goal of the year - remaining No. 1 for the sixth consecutive year — when Marcelo Rios dropped out Thursday because of a back injury. That ruined Rios hopes of challenging Sam-

Corretja gave Sampras an epic four-hour battle in the US Open quarterfinals in 1996. when Sampras was so ill he had to vomit, still managing to save a match point. But Corretja had never beaten Sampras in their previous three matches

" I realize God is fair and gave me this victory after two years of hearing about that match," Corretja said.

The three match points turned into a long rallies, and all went Correjta's way, one on his winner, two on errors by Sampras. Sampras netted a simple forehand and dived for a volley on the last one, but it went wide.

"That easy forehand on match point will sit on me for a while," Sampras said.

The loss reflected the kind of mixed year Sampras has had. by his standards. He won Wibledon and three other titles, but no other Grand Slams. Two Spaniards have never played in a final before in this tournament. The last Spanish finalist was Manuel Orantes, who also won what was then called the Masters in 1976 in Houston. Although not known for his prowess on indoor courts, Moya reached the semifinals of the championship last year in his first appearance in the tournament and now has advanced to his first final. Corretja could become the first player to win the event in his first attempt since John McEnroe in 1978. Moya turned the match in the middle of the third set when he broke Henman's serve to tie the score at 3-3.

AB Bank TT Wins for Biman, Armanitola and Inter Sports

Blatter begins tour to WC co-hosts SEOUL, Nov 29 (Reuters/Internet): The head of soccer's governing body said on Sunday he was convinced South Korea and Japan, joint hosts of the 2002 World Cup, would stage a successful event. FIFA president Sepp Blatter made the comment on arrival in Seoul at the start of a trip to both countries. He was to be briefed on South Korea's preparations later on Sunday. Blatter will meet South Korean President Kim Dae-jung on Monday before leaving for Japan, local television reported. This month, a FIFA delegation expressed approval of South Korea's plans for accommodation, transportation and stadiums. The 2002 World Cup will be the first to be jointly hosted, though Japan and South Korea have a long history of antagonism
