Cuba confce
in Dhaka uncertain

By Nurul Kabir

The biennial international solidarity conference for Cuba, scheduled to be held in Dhaka in November next year, has now become uncertain as the government recently showed reluctance about it.

The reluctance came directly from Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, when two Workers Party leaders, Haider Akbar Khan Rono and Rashed Khan Menon, met her on Saturday, meeting sources said.

"We met the Prime Minister to discuss the solidarity conference for Cuba, but her response was discouraging," Rono, an organiser of the conference, told the Daily Star.

Replying to another query, the Workers Party leader said, "In holding such an important conference, it is important to secure government support especially in the areas like providing security to the international delegates."

Explaining PM's reluctance to co-operate with such a venture, government sources said that Prime Minister did not think it wise to do anything that might 'irritate' the American administration right at the moment.

However, the Cuba solidarity conference has been taking place every two years somewhere outside Cuba since long. The last time it was held in Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam, while Dhaka was chosen to be its next venue.

A national preparatory committee comprising more than a hundred eminent citizens was formed in this regard a few months ago.

The committee sources said that they would meet very soon to decide the next course of action.
