Deaths at RMCH Rights groups threaten legal action

By Staff Correspondent

Legal aid and human rights organisations have threatened to file a writ motion before the High Court Division of the Supreme Court against the government and the Rangpur Medical College Hospital (RMCH) authorities if the people who died and those who are still suffering the after-effects of being injected by date expired saline at RMCH recently are not compensated before 5 pm on December 10.

Ain O Salish Kendra (ASK), Bangladesh Legal Aid Services Trust (BLAST) and Odhakar jointly served legal notices on the Secretary of the Health Ministry, Principal of Rangpur Medical College and Director of the Rangpur Medical College Hospital, says a press release.

The measures urged include giving compensation to the people who died and still suffering the after-effects of being injected by date expired saline, conducting an impartial inquiry and making it public, taking measures against persons responsible for distributing and administering medication to patients and undertaking all measures to adhere to National Health Policy, the statement said.

Grand assembly of freedom fighters each yr on Dec 16

The Central Command Council of Bangladesh Mukti-joddha Sangsad will organise a grand assembly of the freedom fighters each year in the city on December 16 commemorating the historic Victory Day, reports BSS.

The grand assembly will be called "Muktijoddha Milon Mela," said chairman of the Sangsad Principal Ahsan Chowdhury at a get-together of the eminent freedom fighters who took part in the glorious War of Liberation in various capacities. The assembly was held at the Central Command Council's office premises on Saturday.

The Central Command Council chairman also said besides listing the genuine freedom fighters, the authorities are also taking preparations to make a list of the Al-Badars and Razakars who had not only opposed the nation's independence but also assisted the Pakistani occupation forces in committing a worst genocide during the War of Liberation.

This was for the first time eminent freedom fighters of the country's glorious War of Liberation, irrespective of their political affiliations, gathered at the get-together where they spent nearly five hours exchanging views on greater welfare as well as the on-going process of listing the genuine freedom fighters for the record.

Sanghati Parishad to make list of Rajakars

Muktijoddha Sanghati Parishad will soon make a list of the Rajakars-Albadars and their allies, reports BSS.
