IPAC team due today

A 32-members high-powered delegation of International Public Affairs Centre (IPAC) arrives in Dhaka today on a three-day visit for dialogue with the government, reports UNB.

IPAC is an association of the presidents of different multinational corporations based in Brussels, said a BOI press release.

During the visit, the delegation members will call on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina. They will also meet the ministers of Foreign Affairs, Finance, Industry and Commerce, Communication, Education and Agriculture.

It examines public issues that affect the economy and development positions which seek to reflect sound economic and social principles.

After holding such meetings, the IPAC presidents in return give their point of views, especially concerning the social and economic environment, and also recommend their country's entrepreneurs the possibilities of new investments in the countries, which they visit.

Dr M H Battaille, president of IPAC and leader of the delegation, at a press briefing on December 10 in BOI Board Room will explain their visit and will also explain their views regarding present investment environment in Bangladesh.
