Build resistance against repression of women : PM

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday said her government is committed to establishing equal rights of men and women and urged the women community to win their rights through their own efforts, reports UNB.

"Nobody will give you the rights. You will have to acquire it yourselves," she said suggesting the women to become more confident, conscious and educated, which will help them earning their rights.

Distributing Begum Rokeya Padak '98 at a function at Osmany Memorial Hall in the morning, Hasina also called upon all to build resistance against torture and repression of women and children.

This year the Begum Rokeya Padak was awarded to Shaheed Janani Jahannara Imam (posthumous) for her contribution to women leadership and women progress.

The Prime Minister said the government has been putting its all-out efforts to stop women and child repression, which has become a social disease.

"Every man has the same responsibility in curbing the woman and child repression," she said calling for building a social movement to eliminate this vice from the society.

Hasina said the government has taken up a number of steps for the development of the women community and with this end in view, the government has announced the 'National Women Development Policy'.

For implementation of the policy, the government has undertaken specific programmes for empowerment of women, and for their education, health care and employment, she said.

About women empowerment, she referred to the last Union Parishad elections, where the women members were elected through direct voting. "Some 14,000 women have been elected members in the Union Parishad and they are discharging their duties with success."

The Prime Minister laid special emphasis on the expansion of women education and said without massive women education real development of the country is not possible.

The government is constructing a training centre for women in Mymensingh named "Begum Rokeya Training Centre," she said, adding that women will get loans after their training at the centre.

She said the government has increased the allocation for the welfare of the women. The allocation in the 4th five-year plan was only Tk 45 crore, while the present government has earmarked Tk 335.80 crore in 5th five-year plan.

About the recognition of women at every level, Hasina said the women are getting jobs at the higher levels and in different difficult professions.

She also suggested mentioning the name of mother, along with the father, during all documentation of a baby.

The Prime Minister paid tributes to the memory of Begum Rokeya, the pioneer of women renaissance.

State Minister for Women and Children Affairs Dr Moazzam Hossain, Jatiya Mohila Sangstha President Ivy Rahman and Acting Secretary Prof Tahmina Hossain also spoke on the occasion.
