BCL sweeps BAUCSU polls

MYMENSINGH, Dec 18: Abdus Salam and Arif Jahangir of the Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) were elected vice-president and general secretary respectively of BAUCSU in Thursday's elections, reports UNB.

Student wing of the ruling Awami League established its supremacy in Bangladesh Agriculture University Central Students' Union (BAUCSU) and hall unions elections by winning majority of the seats.

Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), the student front of the main opposition BNP, and some other student groups, however, boycotted the poll saying that the atmosphere was not favourable for holding fair election.

BCL won all but one of 15 BAUCSU posts. Bangladesh Chhatra Union candidate Sutapa Chowdhury Poppy bagged the remaining post of common room secretary.

In the half union elections, BCL also got a large number of seats. Some 135 BCL candidates returned in the elections of the university's nine hall unions while BCU won in 17 seats and independent candidates in six.

Full panel of BCL won in Shamsul Huq and Shaheed Jamil Hossain halls.

Int'l seminar on theatre today

A day-long theatre-related international seminar on 'Encounter between East and West' will be held at Russian Cultural Centre in the city today, reports UNB.

Artistic Director of Haalagland Theatre of Tromsø, Norway, Haukur J Gunnarsson, will present the key-note paper at the opening session of the seminar, organised by Centre for Asian Theatre, Bangladesh, said a press release.

Poet and playwright Syed Shamsul Huq, Prof Sayed Jamil Ahmed, Ataur Rahman and Tareq Anam Khan will take part in the discussion.

At the concluding session, actor and director Mamunur Rashid will present the key-note paper.

USIS IRC timing during Ramadan

Bangladesh Institute for Environmental and Geographic Information ServicesExecutive Director and Senior Professionals

EGIS is a Center of Excellence performing environmental studies, based on an advanced capacity in remote sensing and GIS techniques, to the public and private sectors in Bangladesh. It employs an experienced team of 35 Bangladesh professionals, including such disciplines as biophysical, socio-economic and computer sciences. Activities of EGIS are: consulting; research; information and database management; and training.

EGIS is a project under the Ministry of Water Resources with funding from the Government of The Netherlands. Staff started to work together in the early 1990s in the environmental and GIS studies under the Flood Action Plan. The Bangladesh and Netherlands Governments are firmly committed that EGIS should become an independent organization in 1999, as a public trust, representing government, commercial and scientific sectors.

The Executive Director (preferably between 45 and 55 years old) will be responsible to the Board of Trustees. His/her main tasks are:

- to provide clear scientific and management leadership to the organization.
- to represent the institute commercially and scientifically; and
- to strengthen relationships with government and donor agencies, universities, NGOs and the private sector.

Until December 2000, he/she will share management responsibility with the present expatriate team leader.

Senior Professionals (2 or 3) will give scientific and management leadership to specific sections of the organization dealing with either: environment; spatial analysis (including RS and GIS); or databases. These sections are responsible for research and advisory services to clients.

Candidates for above positions should be Bangladeshi nationals of high professional standards, and with a background and experience in water resources and environment and / or applications of GIS and RS. Selection criteria include: professional capability; management capability and leadership quality; entrepreneurship; experience to work in multi-disciplinary teams and in an international context; and familiarity with Government and donor procedures.

Please reply with full details and covering letter before January 23, 1999 to Rob Koudstaal, team leader EGIS-II; Hse 49, Rd 27, Banani, Dhaka-1213; Bangladesh; Tel: 880-2-881570/1/2; Fax: 883128; E-mail: rob@citechco.net
