Office timing during Ramadan

Office timing of all government, semi-government, autonomous and semi-autonomous bodies during the holy month of Ramadan has been fixed from 9 am to 3-30 pm with a break for Zohr prayers from 1-15 pm to 1-30 pm. BSS reports, correcting error in its report published earlier.

According to an official handout, after the month of Ramadan; the usual office timing from 9 am to 5 pm will continue with a break of half an hour for Zohr prayers and lunch from 1 pm to 1-30 pm.

Banks, post offices, telephone, railway, hospitals, public sector industries and other organisations whose services are on emergency list will follow their own office timing during the month of Ramadan, the announcement added.
