President says
Reduce dependence on foreign aid in running BDRCS

President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed has underlined the need for reducing the dependence on foreign aid in running the Bangladesh Red Crescent Society (BDRCS).

In a message on the occasion of the 26th annual general meeting of BDRCS, the president said the society has earned the people's confidence and appreciation through relief and service-oriented activities.

He hoped that the society would take up new programmes in view of the country's socio-economic scenario along with continuing current activities. Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed, who is also president of the BDRCS, said the annual general meeting is significant in evaluating the past programmes and taking up new ones.

"Besides, this meeting has an important role in formulating budget and identifying the sources of fund to strengthen the society's base," he said.

Govt taken up $60m judicial, legal capacity building project

The government has taken up a judicial and legal capacity building project involving 60 million US dollars for increasing efficiency of the judicial and legal system, reports BSS.

Official sources told BSS yesterday that the World Bank will provide 45 million US dollars for the project of which 9.5 million US dollars have been earmarked for legal and regulatory capacity building, 11 million US dollars for judicial capacity building, 20 million US dollars for improved court and other infrastructure and 4.5 million US dollars for project implementation unit.

The government will provide rest of the amount and the Ministry of Law and Justice will implement the project.

According to the sources, the main objective of the project is to increase efficiency of the judicial and legal system through improvement of the legal framework, streamlining the system of courts and strengthening the judicial capacity and providing improved access to justice.

The government is negotiating with the World Bank for reaching an agreement with it by April next year so that the project could be launched in the middle of next year, they said.

The sources said the government is completing all its procedural requirements including approval of Technical Assistance Project Profile (TAPP), Project Concept Paper (PCP) and Project Profile (PP) before signing the agreement.

A series of meetings were held between the government and the World Bank on the loan negotiation for the project, said a senior official of the government.

He said the World Bank in its board meeting on March next year may give approval of the credit for the project.

Steps taken to ensure adequate supply of water in city: Zillur

LGED Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday said that an initiative to implement the development and extension of WASA lines was taken to ensure adequate supply of water in Dhaka city and the adjoining areas, reports UNB.

The project will cost Tk 3,000 crore, the minister told French Ambassador in Dhaka Renee Veyret, who called on him at his office to discuss about cooperation of her government in development of infrastructure for augmenting water supply in the city.

The minister also informed the ambassador about the progress of post-flood rehabilitation and reconstruction work and lauded the continued support of the French government in constructing the water supply infrastructure and development in other social sectors.

Lankan Peace council team meets Speaker

The visiting 16-member high-level delegation of National Peace Council of Sri Lanka called on Speaker Humayun Rasheed Chowdhury at Sangsad Bhaban yesterday, reports UNB.

Sri Lankan Social Welfare Minister Bertie Premalal Disanayake led the delegation, which included government high officials, opposition parliament members, Buddhist monks, journalists and human right activists.

During the meeting, they exchanged views on various matters relating to mutual interests of the two countries.

Parliamentary Secretary Kazi Moonzur-e-Maula was present on the occasion.

Mannan Bhuiyan visits injured JCD leader

By Staff Correspondent

BNP secretary general Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan yesterday visited injured Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal leader Masud, who is undergoing treatment at Pangu Hospital.

'Anti-fundamentalism Week' begins at BUET

By BUET Correspondent

The "Anti-Fundamentalism and Anti-Communalism Week", organised by Muktijuddha Chhatra Command (MCC) and Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) of BUET unit, began on the BUET campus yesterday.

The programmes of the week began with a procession and a rally.

After the rally, the students burnt an effigy of Golem Azam in front of the BUET cafeteria at around 12:30 pm.

The speakers at the rally regretted that there is no memorial to liberation war martyrs on BUET campus even after 27 years of independence.

They also demanded immediate setting up of a monument on the campus.

The rally was addressed by the MCC and BCU leaders.

A week-long photography exhibition also began on the campus yesterday on the occasion. It was dedicated to late journalist Munajatuddin and his son late Md Sadik Subarna, who was a student of BUET.

The other programmes include an essay competition on "Liberation War Consciousness: Thought of the Generation" and movie sessions.

On the first day, two movies — "They fought for their motherland" and "Battleship Potemkin" — were screened.

Govt employee robbed

By Staff Correspondent

An employee in the Commerce Ministry was robbed of her gold ornaments near the Mohammadpur bus station in the city yesterday evening.

The victim was identified as Laila Parveen, a cashier in the Commerce Ministry and a resident of Salmullah Road under Mohammadpur thana.

Police said the victim came under attack while she was returning home from office at about 3:30 pm yesterday. A group of four miscreants riding on two motor-bike stopped her rickshaw and snatched away a gold chain and a bracelet at gun-point and left the spot.

A general diary was lodged with Mohammadpur police station in this connection.
