Govt urged to transfer HBFC under Ministry of Housing

Clients of the House Building Finance Corporation (HBFC) yesterday urged the government to transfer the HBFC, now an auxiliary of the Ministry of Finance, to the Ministry of Housing.

"The HBFC should be a welfare organisation in the true sense of the term and not a commercial agency," the president of the Association of the Clients of HBFC, Barrister Rabia Bhuiyan told a press conference yesterday morning.

Barrister Rabia told newsmen that HBFC was established to solve housing problems in the country but it was playing the role of an "English trader" or a rural money-lender, from commercial outlook. She alleged that the HBFC was also playing a double standard in loan disbursement to its employees and to the general clients.
