French off to flying start

PERTH, Jan 2: France swept into Group A of the 900,000 Australian dollars (550,620 US) Hopman Cup tennis tourna-ment here today comfortably defeating Zimbabwe in a playoff clash, reports AFP.

Guillaume Raoux, ranked 53rd in the world, crushed Wayne Black (95th) 6-1, 6-3 in the men's singles after Sandrine Testud, who is ranked 14th, gave France a flying start by brushing aside Cara Black (44th) in the women's singles.

Testud won 4-6, 6-1, 6-2. France's win means it qualifies for Group A of the nine-nation tournament. It will come up against topseeded Spanish pair Carlos Moya and Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario Monday, Australia (Mark Philippoussis, Jelena Dokic) Wednesday and South Africa Wayne Ferreira and Amanda Coetzer Thursday.

France have never won the Hopman Cup, but reached the final last year before Mary Pierce and Cedric Pioline were beaten by the Slovak Republic's Karina Habsudova and Karol

The island team resume the season with a four-point advantage over nearest challengers Celta Vigo and Valencia, with the big names of Spanish football - Real Madrid and Barcelona — left in their wake.

Real Madrid, meanwhile, are at home to relegation strugglers Tenerife, who are looking for improved results under new coach Carlos Aimar.

Barry boosts Aston Villa

BIRMINGHAM, Jan 2: Rising star Gareth Barry on Friday gave Aston Villa a New Year lift by agreeing a new five-yearcontract with the English Premiership leaders, reports AFP.

Barry, who is still only 17, was offered the new deal by Villa manager John Gregory in November and has now thrashed out personal terms.

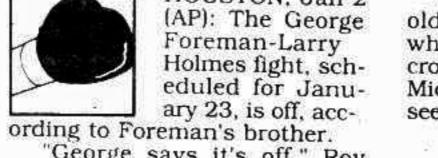

The England under-21 international defender will formally put pen to paper to the contract on his 18th birthday in February.

Barry, who revealed he had been a target for Arsenal and Chelsea before he opted to join Villa from Brighton, had played imevery Premiership match this season until last week.

Gregory then rested him for two matches over the festive period against Charlton and blackburn before bringing him back on Monday against Sheffield Wednesday.

Huge fine on Sino food co

BEIJING, Jan 2: A Beijing court has fined a food company and ordered it to stop infringing the Olympic logo and apologise publicly to the Chinese Olympic Committee, a report said today. according to AFP.

The Guangming daily reported the China Olympic Committee had brought a case against Jinwei'r Food Industries Co Ltd. for using the fivering logo on its packaging in January last year.

The Beijing No 1 Intermediate People's Court ruled on December 17 that the company must stop using the logo immediately, fined it five million yuan (604,000 dollars) and ordered it to take out an apology in the relevant media.

'We had an extension for the letters of credit until the close of business Los Angeles time (Thursday)," Levitt said. "We might need another extension.'

Foreman wasn't waiting. He received a non-refundable million dollar deposit and Holmes keeps a 400,000 dollars down payment on his 4 million dollars purse.

test in July. The 30-year-old Czech, whose top ranking of seventh in the world came in 1992, was forced by the ITF to forfeit the 94,529 dollars he won as a Wimbledon quarterfinalist. But the ITF ruled out a ban, saying it accepted he could have been unaware of being given the steroid in an injection following an injury.

Soldini wins second leg

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Jan 2: Italian Giovanni Soldini won the second leg of the Around Alone around-theworld yacht race Saturday after British rival and race leader Mike Golding struck trouble. reports AP.

Golding led by two days, 17 hours over Soldini following the first leg from Charleston, South Carolina, to Cape Town, South Africa.

A team of boat builders flew to assist Golding in the remote Tom Bowling Bay in the far north of New Zealand after he damaged his yacht Friday.

Golding's yacht, Team Group 4, was towed to safety by a fishing boat Friday after he hit an unknown submerged object and began taking on water.

Susan Preston, from Golding's headquarters in London said Golding was trying to make repairs to stay in the race.

"We are hoping very much at least they can put it together so he can limp in to Auckland where they can have proper repairs down from the next leg," said Preston. "If he can get into Auckland in the next couple of days he will still be in the race. We just have to see if that's pos-

Tough luck!

SANTIAGO, Jan 2: Two criminals made a failed attempt to escape from a Chilean prison on Friday wearing masks of former dictator Augusto Pinochat and soccer star Ivan Zamorano, authorities said, reports AFP.

Wearing the masks, Jose Lepe Rubilar and Dionisio Carcamo Manriquez tried to take advantage of confusion during the new year's day family visiting hours by slipping out the doors of the jail in Lautaro, south of the capital, they said.

However, the disguises did not work, as prison guards became suspicious of the dictator Inter Milan striker in their jail and stopped the pair who then tried to fight their way out.

Guards fired several shots at the duo injuring them, both are now in hospitals recovering from their wounds officials said.
