

Request to pay bonus to workers before Eid

A parliamentary committee requested the authorities concerned to pay Eid bonus to the workers under the Wages Commission before the holy Eid-ul-Fitr, reports UNB.

The directive came from a meeting of the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Labour and Employment held at the Sangsad Bhavan yesterday.

Committee Chairman Abdul Latif Mirza presided over the meeting, which also reviewed the function of the National Wages and Productivity Commission and requested it to submit its report soon.

Providing technical training for overseas job-seekers also came up for discussion.

Committee members Labour and Employment Minister M A Mannan, Shahjahan Khan, Afsar Uddin Ahmad Khan, Fazlur Rahman Khan, Noor Mohammad Mondal, Syed Wahidul Alam, Alhaj Advocate Khairul Enam and Alamgir Haidar Khan attended the meeting.

Secretary of the Ministry of Labour and Employment Ahsan Ali Sarkar and concerned high officials were also present.

761 firearms recovered, 966 arrested last year

By Staff Correspondent

Police recovered a total of 761 firearms last year as against 722 ones in 1997.

They also recovered 3146 bullets, 549 cartridges and 4256 bombs and arrested 966 people during the period.

Yesterday, Dhaka Metropolitan arranged a display of illegal arms and drugs they recovered from different areas in the city between October and December.

A total of 201 firearms 404 bullets, 73 bombs and a huge quantity of drugs were put on display at the DMP Headquarters.

Home Minister Rafiqul Islam, Inspector General of Police AYBI Siddiqi, Police Commissioner AKM Shamsuddin and other high officials attended the programme.

The minister expressed satisfaction at police activities while visiting the display.

Speaking on the occasion, the IG of the police directed the police personnel to remain vigilant to maintain law and order situation during the Eid-ul-Fitr.

Zafar, Moazzem inducted in JP presidium
Kazi Zafar Ahmed and Shah Moazzem Hossain were inducted in the Jatiya Party (JP) presidium and nominated as Vice-Chairmen of the central committee of the party yesterday, reports UNB.

JP Chairman H M Ershad gave the order within a week of Zafar and Moazzem's return to the mainstream of JP on December 28.

Shah Moazzem is now in Dhaka Central Jail. He was arrested in last September for his alleged involvement in the killing of four national leaders on November 3, 1975 in Dhaka central jail.

The nomination of Kazi Zafar and Shah Moazzem would come into effect immediately.
