JCD demonstrates on DU campus

By DU Correspondent

Jatityatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) staged a demonstration on the Dhaka University campus and submitted a memorandum to the Vice Chancellor yesterday demanding release of its president Habib-un-Nabi Sohel and general secretary Nasiruddin Ahmed Pintu.

JCD, the student wing of opposition BNP, brought out a procession on the campus in the morning and held a rally at Aparajeyo Bangla to press home their demand.

Addressing the rally, JCD leaders alleged that the Awami League government, soon after taking the office, started repression on JCD activists to stay in power.

They said it was nothing but a blueprint of the ruling party to dismantle the JCD.

The JCD leaders urged the government to refrain from such undemocratic activities otherwise, they warned of a vigorous movement.

After the rally, a JCD delegation went to the office of VC and submitted the memorandum to him for taking initiative to free their president and general secretary from jail.

On the same issue, JCD will also submit memorandum to the Deputy Commissioners on January 7 and to the Home Minister on January 10.
