Father

Birth anniversary of Justice Murshed today

The 88th birth anniversary of late Chief Justice Syed Mahub Murshed, an eminent jurist and one of the greatest constitutional lawyers of the sub-continent, will be observed today, reports UNB.

A Gurankhuan will be held at his mazar at Banani and Syed Mahub Murshed Memorial Committee will lay wreaths there on the occasion, said a press release.

Various socio-cultural organisations have also chalked out elaborate programmes to highlight the life and activities of the most distinguished son of the soil.

Sangsad officials need special training: Speaker

Speaker Humayun Rasheed Chowdhury has stressed the importance of training of Parliament Secretariat officials to improve their efficiency in official work, reports UNB.

"Parliament Secretariat officials need special training as the type of its work different from other government institutions," he said addressing a certificate giving ceremony in the city yesterday.

The Speaker hoped that the facilities to impart training to the officers and employees would be increased upon completion of the work of Institute of Parliamentary Studies.

The institute is being set up with the financial assistance of UNDP, said an official handout.

BCC to give 396 computers to schools

The Bangladesh Computer Council (BCC) will distribute 396 computers to secondary schools to help introduce computer course, said an official handout yesterday, reports UNB.

BCC informed this to Science and Technology Minister Noor Uddin Khan when he visited its office.

The Executive Director Dr M. Abdus Sobhan told the minister that they imparted training in computer programming to 3,273 youths since July last year.

Pry teachers' salary sent to banks

Cheques for the government's portion of the salary of the registered primary schools' teachers for the months of November and December, 1998 have been handed over to the concerned head offices of the banks, an official handout said yesterday, reports BBS.

The head offices of the banks will send the amount to the respective accounts of the concerned teachers in their respective branches of the local banks, it added.

Concerned teachers have been requested to contact with their concerned banks for drawing their respective amount of money.

Directives to ensure safe journey of home-bound people during Eid

An inter-ministerial meeting yesterday issued directives to the departments concerned to ensure the safety and comfort of passengers travelling home during the period prior to Eid-ul-Fitr, reports BSS.

The meeting was held with State Minister for Shipping Mofazzal Hossain Chowdhury Maya in the chair.

The state minister specially asked the Bangladesh Inland Water Transport Corporation (BIWTC) and Bangladesh Inland Water Transport Authority (BIWTA) to ensure safe journey of passengers.

The meeting took decisions to keep all ferries running round-the-clock in Aricha-Daulatdia, Aricha-Kazirhat and Mawa-Chair Janjat routes and increase the number of ferries in Mawa route. Besides, additional contingent of the police force will be deployed in Mawa Ferry Ghat to control the traffic at the ferry ghat.

The meeting also decided to take necessary measures to ensure safety of the passengers and their services during movement in riverine routes.

The BIWTA authority has been asked to stop the movement of riverine transports having no fitness certificates or permits and also of those carrying passengers beyond capacity.

River police and the police authority will assist the BIWTA authority in this regard.

Directives have also been issued to Dhaka Metropolitan Police to take necessary steps for the control of vehicular traffic approaching Sadarghat Launch Terminal and Buriganga Bridge.

The state minister asked the BIWTA to take measures for dredging of rivers on emergency basis for the convenience of ferry movement.

Secretary of the ministry of shipping, chief of the organisations under the ministry and representatives of home ministry and local government ministry attended the meeting.
