

Pick of the week

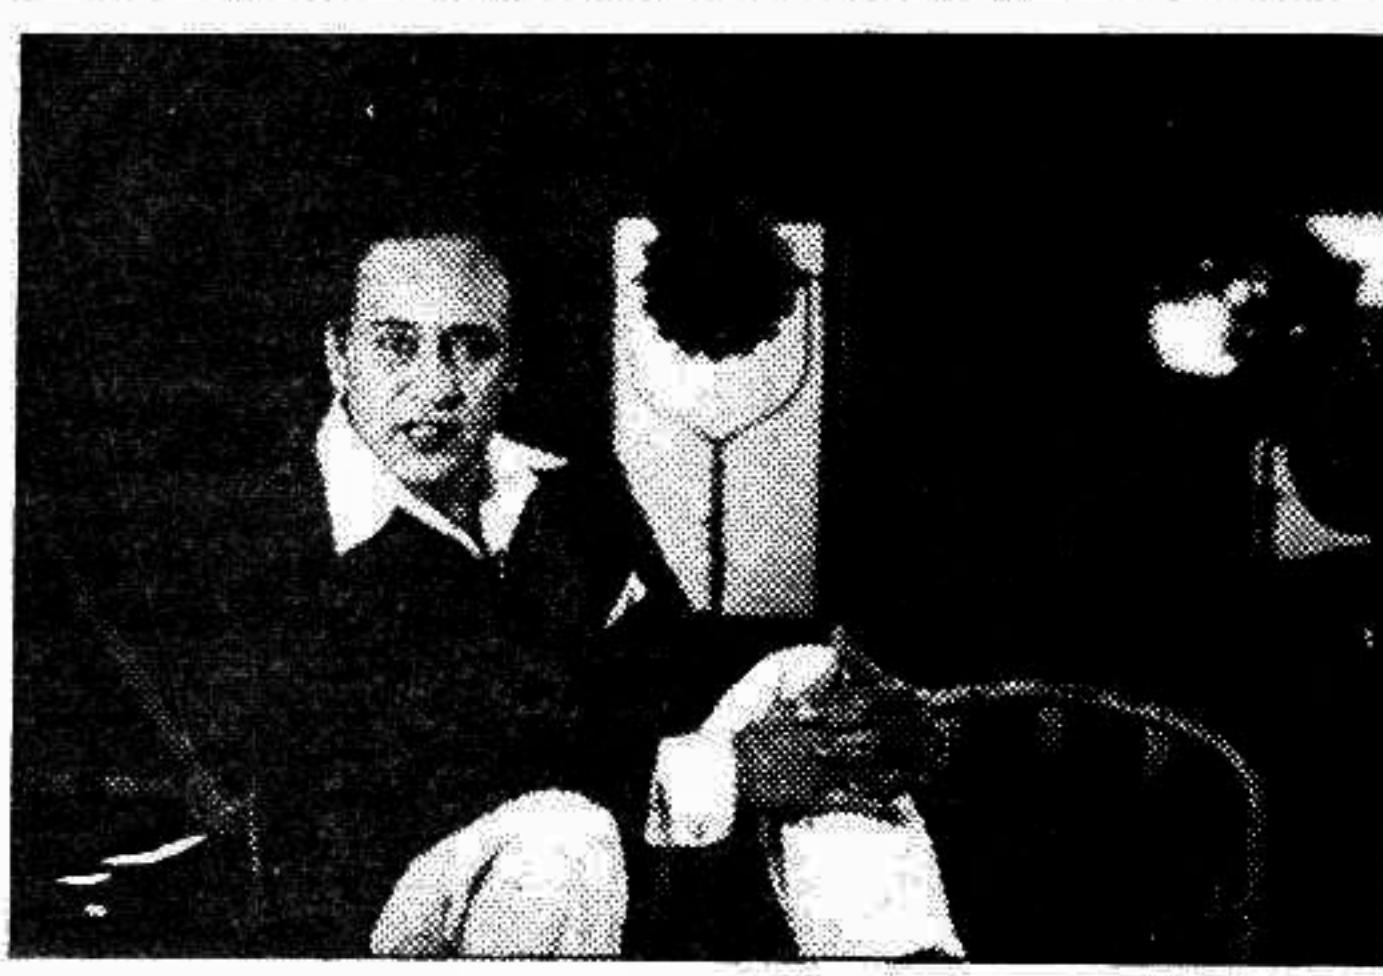

The Documentary

Out Of India

Feb 9th at 10:30 PM on BBC World. What do a sculptor, a Nobel prize-winning economist, a classical music conductor, an actress-cum-cookery expert and a New Age practitioner all have in common? They are all Indian and have made their mark in their diverse fields on the international stage. Out Of India profiles thirteen of the most renowned Indians with in-depth interviews and on-location shooting around the world to bring viewers intimate portraits of, among others, Zubin Mehta, Madhur Jaffrey, Deepak Chopra, Amartya Sen and Anish Kapoor.

Satellite TV

Film India

Every Wednesday on BBC at 10:30 pm

India has the largest film industry in the world, producing over 700 feature films a year in a myriad of languages. Bollywood, the popular name for Hindi cinema, which is based in Mumbai is the capital of the movie industry. And Film India is the programme which aims to be at the heart of movieland. Every week the show will preview the latest Indian films be they popular Hindi 'masala' movies, offerings from art or the parallel cinema or regional films from south India, Calcutta or the Punjab. On location reports, star profiles and special features will all go to make Film India the essential guide to Indian cinema in all its guises.

Fun to Learn French

Compiled by John Grisewood
Publisher: Kingfisher
Price: Tk 260/-
Fun to Learn French is a colourful picture dictionary appealing especially to very young readers who are starting to learn French. Katy Sleight has created amusing, thematic scenes to illustrate carefully chosen words in context. Objects from the main pictures have been picked out and placed in surrounding borders. Matching these illustrations and words is part of the fun of learning. At the end of the book there is a two-way vocabulary listing alphabetically all the words introduced.

AL-GHAZZALI'S MISHKAT AL-AWARE
(The Niche for Lights)
Translated by W. H. T. Gardner
Publisher: Kitab Bhavan
Price: Tk 50/-

This is the English translation of Imam Ghazali's mystical treatise on the Light Verse of the Holy Quran: "Allah is the Light of the Heavens and the Earth. The parable of His Light is as if there was a Niche and within it a Lamp: the Lamp enclosed in Glass: The Glass as it were a brilliant star: lit from a blessed Tree: an olive, neither of the East nor of the West.
