Nat'l HR Commission

Bill likely to be placed in current JS session

A bill to establish a National Human Rights Commission is likely to be placed in the current session of Parliament, the Law Minister said yesterday, reports APB.

"I'll try to introduce a bill to set up an independent human rights commission in this session," Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Abdul Matin Khasru said while inaugurating a poster exhibition on "Human Rights In Artist's View" at Alliance Francaise gallery.

"United Nations Information Centre (UNIC) and Alliance Francaise of Dhaka jointly organised the exhibition in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights."

As many as 23 posters by artist Santu Saha, depicting various aspects of human rights, have been put up at the exhibition which will remain open from 5 pm to 8 pm every day for ten days.

Khasru said the commission would deal with all kinds of human rights issues without any interference whatsoever from the government or form any other pressure groups.

In this context, the Law Minister said the government was trying to institutionalise human rights bodies in Bangladesh. "And I'm confident, the proposed Commission will protect the interest of the common people," he said.
