JSD to observe 'anti-terrorism day' March 9

Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal (JSD) will observe 'anti-terrorism day' across the country on March 9, according to a decision taken by the central re-organisation committee of the party at a meeting in the city yesterday, reports BSS.

JSD president A.S.M. Abdur Rab and general secretary Hasnain Haque Inu urged the respective upazilla and district committee leaders of the party to observe the day.

The next central re-organisation meeting of JSD will be held tomorrow at 10 am at the party office.

JSD central executive committee has also convened an emergency meeting on Feb 27 at 10 am at the same venue to review the recent killing of its leader Kazi Aref Ahmed, a press release said.

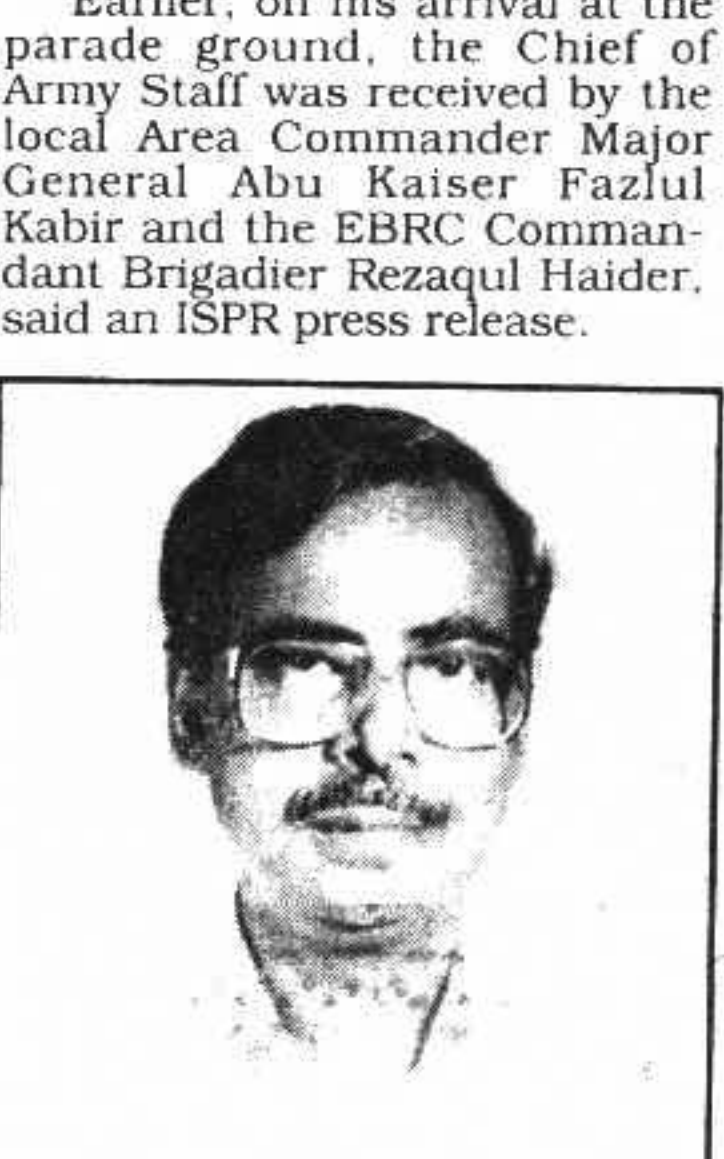

Lt Gen Mustafiz new colonel of East Bengal Regiment

CHITTAGONG, Feb 23: A ceremonial parade marking the investiture of Lt Gen Muhammad Mustafizur Rahman as new Colonel of the Regiment of the East Bengal Regiment of Bangladesh Army was held at the Shaheed MR Chowdhury Drill Square of the East Bengal Regimental Centre (EBRC) at Chittagong Cantonment this morning, reports UNB.

Lt Gen Muhammad Mustafizur Rahman, Bir Bikram, was decorated with the badges of rank and cap of the Colonel of the Regiment by the senior most Commanding Officer, Lt Col SM Nurullah Siddiqui, and the senior most Junior Commissioned Officer Honorary Captain Shamsul Haque of the East Bengal Regiment.

A valiant freedom fighter, himself, General Mustafiz paid glowing tributes to members of the Regiment who had joined the liberation war in 1971 and embraced martyrdom.

Earlier, on his arrival at the parade ground, the Chief of Army Staff was received by the local Area Commander Major General Abu Kaiser Fazlul Kabir and the EBRC Commandant Brigadier Rezaul Haider, said an ISPR press release.

Kaliranjana Sheel dead

Kaliranjana Sheel, 57, a central leader of Bangladesh Communist Party (CPB) and Liberation War veteran, died of a heart attack early yesterday morning, reports BSS.

Sheel a survivor of the Jagannath Hall massacre on the black night of March 25, 1971, died on way to hospital after he suffered a stroke at his Gulbagh residence in the city.

His body was kept for some time in front of the CPB office in the morning when hundreds of party colleagues, friends, admirers and politicians from different parties and socio-cultural organisations gathered to pay their respects to the leader.

Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak and Agriculture Minister Motia Chowdhury were among others who placed wreaths on the coffin covered by the red party flag as mourning party colleagues sang the communist international.

UNB adds: Left Democratic Front also expressed deep shock at the death of Kaliranjana Sheel.

In a condolence message the LDF conveyed deep sympathy to the members of the bereaved family.

BD in a statement also expressed profound shock at the death of comrade Sheel.

Col Taher's mother dead

Ashrafunnesa, mother of valiant freedom fighter late Col Taher, died of old age complications yesterday, family sources said. She was 83, reports BSS.

She is survived by five sons, two daughters and a host of relatives and well-wishers.

Ashrafunnesa was an organiser of the War of Liberation and was associated with a number of socio-cultural organisations.

Six of her sons fought the country's War of Liberation, of them four got gallantry awards. One of her sons, Col Taher, Bir Uttam, was later hanged in a secret military trial.

The body of Ashrafunnesa will be kept in BIRDEM mortuary till the end of hartal and be buried at her family graveyard at Kazla of Netrokona.

Book of poems launched

Tahmidul Islam's book of poems, titled 'Ostut Tey Jal-taranga' (SYMPHONY OF EXISTENCE), published by Boyer Arot, was launched yesterday at the Bangla Academy, says a press release.

The book has been dedicated to the martyrs of the Language Movement and the Liberation Movement and to Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

DU Teachers' clarification and our reply

President and General Secretary of the Dhaka University Teachers' Association (DUTA) in a clarification yesterday said that the statement they issued the day before was printed in "The Daily Star in a way that created some confusion."

In their statement they called for the resignation of the Chief Election Commissioner.

DUTA President Yusuf Haidar and General Secretary Ferdous Hossain yesterday said that the statement issued on "confrontational political situation" did not reflect the views of DUTA and that they issued it in their personal capacities.

Our Reply

The Daily Star published the statement signed by both DUTA president and general secretary. While issuing the statement, the DUTA leaders used the letterhead of the association and affixed their designations.

It is the usual custom that when any top executive of any organisation or association issues statements using the organisation's letterhead, it is assumed that they speak on behalf of the organisation.

We feel that in this particular case, these two DUTA executives misused their official position while issuing a statement using the association's letterhead and created the confusion themselves.

Over Tk 54 lakh donated to PM's Relief Fund

More organisations and individuals have donated cash money amounting to Tk 54,33,691 and 200 US dollar to the Prime Minister's Relief and Welfare Fund for the flood victims, reports UNB.

The donors include Pakistan High Commissioner in Dhaka - Tk 100,000, architect Mazhar - Tk 200,000, Bangladesh Embassy in Abu Dhabi - Tk 41,13,945, Fakirhat Puja Ud-japan Parishad - Tk 20,000 and Maitree Mancha in New Zealand - 200 US dollar.

Besides, Tk 99,746 has been transferred to the fund from Khulna Janata Bank, said a press release.
