Work on IT village in city to start soon

Science & Technology Minister Lt. General (retd) Noor Uddin Khan yesterday said that the government has allocated 47 acres at Mohakhali in the city for the development of an Information Technology (IT) village, reports BSS.

He said necessary infrastructures would be built in the IT village for research and development on information technology including computer, digital data and telecommunications as well as development of computer software.

Inaugurating the first National Scientific Information and Documentation Day in Engineering University auditorium in the city, the minister said steps will be taken soon for land development and planning of the IT village.

He said the government also decided to set up a cyber centre at the Bangladesh National Scientific and Technological Documentation Centre (BANSDOC).

He suggested complete computerisation of the libraries of all universities and research and development organisations so that the scientists could benefit from the international research and development information available worldwide through the Internet.

Organised by BANSDOC with the sponsorship of Islamic Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (ISESCO) based in Rabat, the inaugural session was also addressed by the Vice-Chancellor of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) Prof Dr. Mohammadul Alim, Science Secretary M. Fazlur Rahman, Dr. Jamil Reza Chowdhury of PUET, Dr. M. Shamsur Ali and Dr. M. Lutfar Rahman of Dhaka University, M. Shamsul Islam Khan of ICDDR, and BANSDOC Director Prof M. Shafiqullah.

Shahrier Kabir and Al Amin also took part in the discussion.

Addressing the discussion, Shamsur Rahman said this is high time to uproot religious fanatics through a massive movement.

The future of this posterity will be at stake if we fail to annihilate the root of fanaticism from this soil, he added.

Referring to the recent rise of religious extremism in the country, he said 'Many like me could become a victim of such ill-motive'.

A session of poetry recitation followed the discussion meeting.

Foreign ministry regrets for cancellation of news briefing

The foreign ministry yesterday regretted the "inconvenience" caused to the media for cancelling a scheduled news briefing on Friday, reports BSS.

In a clarification, the ministry said that when it was observed that the meeting of the commissioners and senior officials of the D-8 countries was likely to extend into the evening, a press release was immediately issued to cancel the briefing.

By 3.30 pm this information was communicated to all concerned. Notices were put up in the Press Club and sent out to all other suitable places, including through the BSS, UNB, APB, and all other agencies, the statement said.

In fact, it added, the meeting of the commissioners continued beyond 10.00 pm on Friday.

Dr Ahmed Sharif's body to lie in Shaheed Minar for 2 hrs today

The body of Dr Ahmed Sharif will lie in state at Central Shaheed Minar today for two hours from 3 pm for the people to show their respect to the renowned scholar, reports UNB.

A researcher in Bengali literature and former teacher of Bengali Department of Dhaka University, Prof Sharif died of cardiac arrest early Wednesday.

He has bequeathed his body to Bangladesh Medical College at Dhanmondi for the medical students and will be handed over to them today afternoon.

Earlier, his eyes were collected by Sandhani and successfully grafted to two blind persons.
