

event Congratulations to Them

24th and 25th March 1999 - they would've been absolutely 'normal' days, had it not been for the people of different cultural organisations, who chose those two days to hold programs and through it, condemn the fundamentalists and protest against them. Everyone participated in the program starting from 'Anondodhara' to 'Chitrakala' to Dhaka Theatre and helped to make the event a huge success.

CULTURE oriented people and fundamentalists - they definitely don't go hand in hand. In fact, they are poles asunder as far as their activities and curriculum are concerned. When the latter is involved in songs of Tagore, films of Satyajit and drama of Dhaka Theatre, the fundamentalists, who are better known as fatwas, protest to ban Rabindra grams and through it, condemn the fundamentalists and protest against them. Everyone participated in the program starting from 'Anondodhara' to 'Chitrakala' to Dhaka Theatre and helped to make the event a huge success. They all came forward to make a solid stand: against fundamentalism, against violation of rights and freedom of expression. The program which included songs, films, dramas, poetry recitals and so on, was organised by most people of the cultural arena, like Tareq Masud, Aly Zaker, Assaduzzaman Nur and organisations like Chayanot.

On the first day of the two-day program, Chayanot performed the opening songs after which, Anjali Lahiri held a publication ceremony. Dewan Abdul Kalam, Shah Alam Dewan, Momota Dasi Abdur Razak Boyoti and the like, performed Baul songs. Proshika performed 'Gana Shangathan', a drama, and Aly Zaker read out the drama, Noor Al Din, which was very well performed. Laila Hasan's Nataraj performed dances after which, Mita Huq, Wadud and the like rendered songs, which were very pleasing to the ears. Shomi Kaiser and Shompa Reza narrated 'Ami Birongona Bolchi' with passion and it truly touched the heart. Agami, a film followed Shomi and Shompa's performance.

The second day of the program started with Rabindra Sangeet again, but this time, Anondodhara rendered the songs. Assaduzzaman Noor recited a poem (and very nicely so), Mostafa Monwar presented a wonderful puppet show. Ferdousi Mojumadar performed 'Payer Awaj Pawa Jaey'. The Centre presented Idara, CAT presented Bhelua Sundari and Dhaka Theatre performed Ekattorer Pala - all of which were very appreciated and liked by the huge crowd that had gathered at the Shishu Academy premises. Ekti Goly, a film, followed after which there was a band show, where Renaissance, Feelings, Arc and some more bands performed.

Congratulations to all the people who contributed to the program and made it such a success. Their courage and will to take such a stand in spite of the evil forces around, is truly mention-worthy. The program did not end the war between them and the fatwas, but it made a division line between the two, it divided the fatwas and the ordinary people into two camps; it started the war. There is still a lot to accomplish, there is a long way to go, but at least, the fight has begun.

event In memory of the Kal Rattray

Liberation War Museum invited poets, artists, journalists, writers in memory of the "KAL RATTRAY" of the 25th March. And in their presence fire was set to candles beside Shikha Onirban on the corridor of the museum. Then a cultural programme was held on the premises of the museum.

The artists belonging to Chhayanaut enchanted the audience through their musical representations and recitations.

FIRE was set to candles on the Corridor of Liberation War Museum in memory of the "Kal Rattray" of the historical Panchishey March at 6:15 pm on 25th March.

Since the dawn of civilization there emerged the victim on one hand and the victimizer on the other in the history of manhood. The victimizers targeting their selfish end did and undid everything, thereby depriving others of their socio-economic as well as cultural rights. Those who fell victims to them - or to say in other words the victimized - under went oppression, torture, suffering and so forth. The same thing applies to the history of Bangladesh.

The Pakistani colonizer mercilessly preyed upon the people of Bangladesh by snatching away their fundamental rights in many ways. Some times they made an attempt to add a distorted shape to their ethical and cultural originality. And sometimes they took away unlawfully their (Bengalis) economic rights. But the people of Bangladesh are rebellious by nature. They always continued their uncompromising struggle against the existing flow of injustice, oppression and exploitation.

So the Bengalis orchestrated uprising, protest, revolt and movement against the declaration of Mohammad Ali Jinnah that Urdu would be the only state language of both West Pakistan and East Pakistan. And the legendary heroes like Salam, Barkat, Shafiq, Zabar abnegated their life and helped Bangla come into existence as the state language of the people of East Pakistan which is known to all as Bangladesh now.

This is not the end of the heroic role played by the Bengalis. They valiantly edged forward as they mobilized the movement for six-point demand and the 69's mass uprising.

When it dawned upon the Pakistani colonizer that the Bengalis having no regard with religion, creed, caste stood united under the dynamic leadership of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the father of our nation, they made the last-ditch attempt to suppress them. The Pakistani troops suddenly embarked on brutal activities such as genocide, looting, rape and so on in the nightly period of the 25th March in 1971. They brought about the physical destruction of writers, intellectuals, poets, philosophers, doctors, engineers, teachers of Bangladesh, thereafter obstructing the flourishing condition of the progressive force.

Liberation War Museum invited poets, artists, journalists, writers in memory of the "KAL RATTRAY" of the 25th March. And in their presence fire was set to candles beside Shikha Onirban on the corridor of the museum. Then a cultural programme was held on the premises of the museum. The artists belonging to Chhayanaut enchanted the audience through their musical representations and recitations.
