Nasim at discussion
Opposition's 4-point demand nothing but ploy to protect killers

Home, Post and Telecommunications Minister Mohammad Nasim yesterday said the beneficiaries of the killings of August 15 and November 3 have ganged up to protect the killers, reports BSS.

"The four-point and at times one point demand of the opposition is nothing but a ploy to protect the killers of Bangabandhu and the four national leaders," he told a discussion, marking the 78th birth anniversary of Abdur Rab Serniabat in the National Museum auditorium in the city.

Nasim said both Zia and Ershad — the beneficiaries of the killings — harboured the killers of the father of the nation and the four national leaders during their regimes in the last 21 years.

Organised by Shaheed Abdur Rab Serniabat Smriti Parishad, the discussion was addressed, among others, by Whip of the Jatya Sangsad Alhaj Abdus Shahid, assistant attorney general Mushfiqur Rahman, director general of Islami Foundation Maulana Abdur Awal, news editor of daily Ittefaq Golem Sarwar and Shahana Abdulllah, daughter-in-law of shaheed Serniabat Advocate Rahmat Ali, MP, presided over the function.

Had not Bangabandhu and the four national leaders been killed, Zia and Ershad would never come to power, Nasim said.
