

Hamid's Dreams in Steel to be Seen in Seoul

HAMIDUZZAMAN Khan, the head of the sculpture at the Dept. of Fine Arts, DU, leaves for Seoul today to represent Bangladesh at the Pu-Yeo International Modern Sculpture Symposium at Korea.

lines. "This represents Nature. This has a single colour and it stands for unity. The sculptors were asked to choose from the subjects of unity, love or eternity."

"I feel that the type of work that I'm doing is not really popular in Bangladesh so that I'm glad to get a chance to show the

"Ten years later I am going to another such cultural park at the same place. I will participate in a symposium there. More importantly, I will have 20 assistants, students from MFA of the sculpture department and professionals to help me with my work, which I must complete by 15th May. The size of the work is limited to 3 metres x 5 metres x 1.5 metres. Most of the workshop will concentrate on granite but I will be allowed to work in steel."

Hamiduzzaman will be working in a factory not far from the city. He has already sent a model of durable material and there is an exhibition going on in Seoul based on this model and other such work at the National Folklore Museum, Insa-dong Sun Gallery.

Hamiduzzaman explains that the form of his sculpture is derived from a single sheet and it has both curved and wavy world what I can do. This opportunity to go overseas is heartening indeed. This gives me a tremendous sense of satisfaction. I personally know many of the sculptors who will be there like Satoro Sato (Japan), Michael Warren (UK), and Mark Brusse (Netherlands). I'm sure that I will enjoy the experience tremendously," the sculptor comments on his going to work in Seoul.

Dwelling on modern sculpture, Hamid remarks, "While modern painting has been accepted by many in Bangladesh, modern sculpture is not that popular. For the average viewer, sculpture means statues and busts only. A lot of this stems from lack of patrons. Small sized modern sculptors are now slowly getting a market."

"Painting has been my beginning. In Europe, during my stay there decades ago, I was greatly influenced by the sculpture works that I saw there. However, I still paint in order to relax. I have recently done a relief work with modern symbols, the work measuring 40ft x 8ft, at Summi Centre, Kawran Bazar. All the modern images in that piece have been accepted, and I find that a good sign. I develop my ideas from small sculpture pieces. I hope to find patrons for large sculpture pieces. My best work is 'Birds Family' which stands in the President's House and is 24 ft high. It had been done in '81. In Jahangirnagar University campus, near the library, I created 'Shangshaptak' depicting freedom fighters and have done four pieces in the DU campus. These too have been appreciated."

"Our Sculpture Department is now 35 years old. Personally, for a long time, I had no proper studio, but in a few months I hope to have a suitable one in Buddha, where I will have a full-fledged studio with adequate equipments for welding, sheet-cutting, finishing and colouring. The rooms there will be 25 ft x 25 ft so that I can display my work properly," Hamiduzzaman adds.

exhibition S. Helal Uddin's Exhibition: A Preview

Helal Uddin's fortnight-long solo water colour show begins today at Gallery 21.

S Helal Uddin's Solo Water Colour Exhibition starts today at Gallery 21 at 5pm. Foreign Secretary, M. Shafi Sami, will inaugurate the exhibition as Chief Guest. Artist Mustafa Monowar will be present as Special Guest and Professor Rafiqun Nabi will preside over the opening ceremony.

by Cultural Correspondent

Fifty-four paintings will be on display. He depicts events and actions of everyday life as perceived by an ordinary man. The remarkable aspect of this exhibition is that most of the paintings have been created with the subject in front with an objective eye. This means the paintings tell a true story and even though the events may have no significance in history, they reflect events that actually took place.

A Fine Arts Masters graduate from Chinal, Helal has a fascination with watercolour. For him, the way paint and water mixes together is like a game. "You never know what the result would be when you are using this medium. There is surprise for me as well. When I am painting, it is as though the brushes have a life of their own," said Helal Uddin.

The curator of Gallery 21, Shameem Subrana, said that water colours are difficult to work with and it takes real talent to operate with such a medium. "Helal not only showed bravery in doing a water colour series but also showed competence, which at his age is a great achievement. I am certainly proud to hold his exhibition in my gallery."

The exhibition has all the credentials to be a success. The brightly coloured paintings against the white washed walls of the gallery have a lot to offer to the art lovers. Be it to see the effect of light and shade on various objects, to watch the colours at play or simply to socialize with the artists and art enthusiasts, the exhibition has something to offer to everyone.

Eager to learn the art of cinema

Though Cinema came into being at the end of the 19th century but it bloomed into a flourishing state at a later stage with the spread of scientific and technological innovation. In fact Cinema emerged as one of the most powerful art media in the days of modern world. It like other pure forms of art can enable man to get straight to the core of problems originating from the greater range of human life. People concerned with Bishwasahitto Kendro Chalachchitro Chakro nurture the progressive idea that cinema possesses a power to help a man to develop a comprehensive understanding of human life and society.

Bishwasahitto Kendro embarked on the act of giving birth to enlightened people with a sense of high dignity from its embryonic stage. So, this Film Appreciation Course will positively contribute to the progressive ideal of Bishwasahitto Kendro.

Bishwasahitto Kendro Chalachchitro Chakro will provide scope to the majority of spectators to enjoy the best movies of the world so that they can derive lessons from them and thus the spirit of erudition will dawn upon them.

Bishwasahitto Kendro Chalachchitro Chakro since its inauguration 27th February, 98 displayed fifty two movies. It arranged film Appreciation Course on last June 98. And it continued for six months. Sixty four learners enrolled on the course. A collection of articles consisting of the relevant issues on the course called 'Film Appreciation' got published.

New Series Buffy the Vampire Slayer on Star World at 10 pm

Buffy just wants to be a normal teenage girl: go on dates, giggle with friends, hang out at the shopping mall. However, Buffy is not like other girls. She is the Chosen One: a slayer of vampires. This puts a major crimp in the usual Saturday night plans, most purses aren't large enough to conceal a wooden stake, and it is difficult to simultaneously converse with a date and kickbox evil creatures of the night. Not to mention that wials of holy water have a tendency to break at the most inopportune moments - and garlic is never the most attractive smell when a boy is leaning in for a kiss. Buffy believes that her days of vampire slaying are behind her when she moves to a new high school. She breathes a sigh of relief when Cordelia, the snobbish leader of the most popular clique in school, seems to accept her. However, Buffy soon learns that she can't escape her destiny - and her new school is just teeming with vampire slayers. Buffy proudly takes up the mantle of Vampire Slayer once again. Buffy The Vampire Slayer mixes the comedic charm of "Clueless" with all-out action and the audience's timeless fascination with vampire legends. In Witch, a witch attempts to eliminate Buffy from a cheerleading competition.

The Practice on Star World at 12 midnight

Bobby Donnell (Dylan McDermott) is a young idealistic lawyer committed to the pursuit of justice - and willing to bend the rules to get there. Rather than work at a top Boston law firm, defending the rich and powerful, Bobby chooses to fight for the disenfranchised. He heads a small, working class law practice consisting of Ellenor Fruett (Carmyn Manheim), his right-hand person and the voice of reason; Eugene Young (Steve Harris), a street smart and energetic; Lindsay Dole (Kelli Williams), an insecure recent Harvard graduate; Jimmy Berluti (Michael Badalucco), enthusiastic but inexperienced; and Rebecca Washington (Lisa Gay Hamilton), the calm, centred secretary/paralegal. Bobby and his team often find themselves caught between the glory of practicing law to right wrongs and the pragmatic reality of running a business. It is a constant struggle to remain true to their dreams without compromising themselves solely to make it through the system intact.

New Series Ally McBeal

on Star World at 11 pm

Ally McBeal is an attorney. She's also single after breaking up with her long-term boyfriend, Billy Thomas. Ally and Billy were inseparable since childhood, but their togetherness ended during law school when Ally was selected for a prestigious honour and Billy wasn't, precipitating Billy's transfer to another school. Circumstances led Ally to join a Boston firm, headed by her law school nemesis, Richard Fishman. There she meets her new colleague, Billy. Yes, the same Billy who is now married, although there are still strong feelings on both sides. To add to the confusion, Ally wants to hate his wife Georgia, but she can't help but like her. When Ally has a reaction to something, we see it. And Ally's thoughts are anything but shy! Created by David E. Kelley, the award-winning producer of "Chicago Hope" and "The Practice," Ally McBeal promises a vivid fantasy life, complications of the heart, and a contemporary look at real-life office politics. Starring Calista Flockhart, Gil Bellows, Courtney Thorne-Smith, Greg Kinnear, Lisa Nicole Carson and Jane Krakowski. In Compromising Positions, Ally meets the firm's other founding partners - when she defends him on charges of soliciting a prostitute - and feels like a prostitute herself when Fish asks her to date a prospective client.
