Healy not finished justyet

BRISBANE, Apr 15: Australian wicketkeeper Ian Healy ended speculation he would retire from international cricket when he arrived in Brisbane from the West Indies Wednesday, reports Reuters.

While he admitted his form in the Caribbean was well be low his usual high standard. Healy told reporters the slump had motivated him to continue playing at Test level.

"It was an unproductive tour for me with the gloves and when you're under that pressure you have to call on all of your experience," Healy said.

"You have to take the tough road and not worry about what might happen and I was pleased I did that.

"That indicates to you as a person that you still want to be there and you have the skills and ability to do that.

"I have a long winter now and I can say even from the week that I've had off, the hunger is still there and I would like to finish in a positive way when the time comes."

Rain holds up play at Barcelona

BARCELONA, Spain, Apr 15 (Reuters/ Internet): Heavy rain held up play at the Barcelona Open on Thursday.

With the forecast for the day poor, it was unclear when the third round action scheduled for the day could get underway. The tournament was hit on Wednesday with the withdrawal of number one seed Pete Sampras, who injured his back in a doubles match.

There was also a doubt over the continued presence of Spain's number two seed Carlos Moya, who was suffering from a thumb injury.

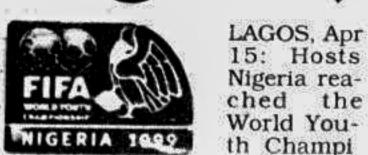

Moya was expected to make a decision on his fitness immediately before his match against compatriot Juan Carlos Fer-

Play had been due to start with a match between Spaniard

Alberto Berasategui and Franco Squillari of Argentina. Other players due on court on Thursday were Britain's number five seed Tim Henman. scheduled to face Spaniard Francisco Clavet, and defending champion Todd Martin, who was due to play Italian Renzo Furlan.

Nigeria, Brazil in last eight

Nigeria reached the World Youth Champi onship quarterfinals by beating

Ireland on penalties in scorching conditions on Wednesday and Brazil went through by hammering Croatia 4-0, reports Reuters.

They were joined by Uruguay, who overcame South American rivals Paraguay on penalties despite having two players sent off, and Ghana, 2-0 winners over Costa Rica.

Ireland coach Brian Kerr. whose team drew 1-1 with Nigeria after extra time, said his side would have won the tie had it not been for the searing afternoon heat in the northern city of Kano.

"The boys are drained because of the heat," he said. "Without it we would have beaten Nigeria."

Ireland stunned the crowd by taking a first half lead through Richie Sadlier, his second goal of the tournament. Pius Ikedia equalised in the second half.

Nigeria won 5-3 on penalties after Ireland's Thom Heary had his kick saved by Sam Okoye. Costa Rica coach Carlos Watson also said the heat in nearby Kaduna was to blame for his team's defeat. The Costa Ricans' perfor-mance was a pale shadow of their 2-1 first round win over Germany, their attack failing to produce a serious shot on goal. Owusu Afriyie set Ghana on their way with a long-range shot in the 18th minute. Peter Ofori-Quaye added the second 11 minutes from time.

The Central Americans had Roberth Arias sent off for a second bookable offence. The evening games produced more action. Brazil, who beat Zambia 5-1 in the previous match, scored four more in Calabar, two coming from Gremio striker Ronaldo and one each from Edu and Fernando Baiano.

"We are getting better and better. Now I think we can reach the final and after that anything is possible," said Brazil coach Jao Carlos Oliverira.

They now move to Lagos for Sunday's quarterfinal against Uruguay whose clash with Paraguay was the most dramatic of the day.

Paraguay came from two goals behind to draw 2-2 during 90 minutes, only to lose 10-9 in a marathon penalty shootout. Striker Roque Santa Cruz, who scored both Paraguay goals, missed the crucial spot Ernesto Chevanton gave Uruguay, runners-up in Malaysia two years ago, a halftime lead. Diego Forlan increased the advantage in the 50th minute before Santa Cruz led Paraguay's fightback.

Uruguay had captain Omar Pouso and right-back Damian Macaluso sent off for two bookable offences while Paraguay's Elvis Marecos was also shown the red card for a crude challenge before halftime.

The remaining second round games will be played today: Argentina v Mexico (Ibadan) Japan v Portugal (Bauchi) Mali v Cameroon (Enugu) Spain v United States (Port Harcourt).

Zidane's wife tired of Turin

ROME, Apr 15 (Reuters/ Internet): World footballer-of-the-year Zinedine Zidane says he wants to leave Italian champions Juventus at the end of the season to play in Spain. In an interview published in La Repubblica newspaper on Tuesday. Zidane said his Spanish wife was tired of living in the northern industrial city of Turin and wanted to return to her home country.

"My contract is good until 2004 but I would like to play in Spain where my wife and parents are from," he told the paper. "My family is my main priority...and if my family is unhappy in Turin I have to say so. because that's the reality."

"For now I am with Juventus -- for now," he said. "At the end of the season I will have to talk to management and to my wife." Zidane, who scored twice in France's 3-0 World Cup final defeat of Brazil, declined to confirm the reported interest of Spanish giants Real Madrid and Atletico Madrid.

Other big clubs including Manchester United, who face Juventus in Turin in the second leg of a European Cup semifinal on Wednesday, have also been reported as interested although Zidane's wife may not want to swap Turin for Manchester.

Juventus director general Luciano Moggt said last week that Zidane was not for sale and that he would be at the centre of the club's plans next season. Coach Carlo Ancelotti has also said he wants to keep "Zizou" at the Delle Alpi stadium next year "Zidane is important to this side whether we play a 4-4-2 formation, 4-3-3 or 8-1-1," An-celotti said at the weekend. Zidane, still nursing a right knee injury which will almost certainly prompt Ancelotti to rest him for the league visit to Lazio on Saturday, said he was confident Juve would beat United.

"Juventus can still play incredible matches," he said, referring to the Turin side's superb performance in their 1-1 draw at Old Trafford in the first

"The cup is within our reach, he said.

Batistuta denies Parma

PARMA, Italy, Apr 15(Reu-ters/Internet): Gabriel Batistuta's 24th goal of the season gave Fiorentina a valuable 1-1 draw at Parma in the first leg of the Italian Cup final on Wed-

The Argentine lashed home a close-range shot 10 minutes from time after his Brazilian striking partner Edmundo had made a thundering run down the right before beating fullback Nestor Sensini to fire in a low cross.

Florentina's Czech defender Tomas Repka had gifted Parma a 16th-minute lead when he let a cross from Croat Mario Stanic slip through his legs in the six-yard box. Argentine striker Hernan Crespo accepted the offer and stroked the ball past goalkeeper Francesco Toldo.

PSV Eindhoven 3-1 on Tuesday. Ajax were the better side in the first half but several chances were squandered and it was not until the 45th minute that Wamberto found the net with a bicycle-kick from a Jesper Gronk aer cross.

In the second half league leaders Feyenoord found their rhythm again. Jean Paul van Gastei levelled the score in the 55th minute with a brilliantly taken free kick from 20 metres.

Melchiot scored again in the 71st minute after running through the Feyencord defence to shoot the ball through goalkeeper Jurek Dudek's legs.

FED CUP Hoping to make the event

commercially stronger, the lnternational Tennis Federation announced plans to restructure the Fed Cup. Gone will be the bracket format it used the past four years. In its place, a 13-nation World Group will be formed with this year's champion, the other World Group I nations plus this weekend's four World Group II winners. The linal spot will go to the winner of an eight-nation playoff among the four remaining World Group II nations and the four regional qualifying Group I winners. The defending champion will earn a bye to the semifinals while the other 12 teams will play a oneweek round-robin tournament for the remaining three berths.

SELES STREAK

Monica Seles' victory over Ruxandra Dragomir at the Bausch and Lomb Championships was her first title since winning the Princes Cup in Tokyo last September. Seles lost only 14 games in her five matches, second best ever at the event. Chris Evert lost only 12 in 1981.

DEBUTANTE VICTOR Eighteen-year-old Katarina Srebotnik of Slovenia won the Estoril Open title in her WTA Tour debut. Srebotnik was the Wimbledon junior champion

last year. DAVIS CUP DRAW

Pete Sampras one week closer to passing Ivan Lendl's careerrecord of 270 weeks ranked No 1. Sampras now has been ranked first for 265 weeks.

UPSETS When sixth-ranked Venus Williams of the United States lost her second-round match to 140th-ranked Sonya Jeyaseelan of Canada at the Bausch and Lomb Championships, it not only ended her 10-match winning streak, but it was the largest upset, in ranking differential, since Williams sister Serena, then ranked 453rd, upset No 2 Monica Seles in October 1997.
