AL-backed BCL workers beat up SCF activist on JU campus

By JU Correspondent
An activist of Samajtantrik Chhatra Front (SCF) was beaten up allegedly by the workers of ruling party-backed Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) on the Jahangirnagar University (JU) campus yesterday.

A group of six BCL activists made the attack on Tanvir Morshed, a first year student of Anthropology and resident student of Meer Mosharraf Hosain Hall, after charging him with tearing up BCL posters.

Protesting the attack, Gonotantrik Chhatra Oikya (GCO), a conglomeration of left-leaning student organisations, brought out a procession on the campus and demanded immediate action against the persons responsible.

The GCO also submitted a memorandum to the Vice Chancellor demanding exemplary punishment to those involved in the attack.

Later at a rally, the GCO leaders expressed deep concern over the BCL activists' recent terrorist activities on the campus.

BGMEA condemns Pallabi gang-rape incident

Bangladesh Garments Manufacturers and Exporters Association (BGMEA) on Monday condemned the gang-rape of five female garment workers in the city's Pallabi area on Thursday night.

Quoting newspaper reports, a BGMEA statement said a group of hoodlums abducted the five workers at gunpoint at 10 pm on Thursday when they were returning from their workplace. They were raped inside the Welfare Council of Ward No 6 in Pallabi area.

The BGMEA leaders also expressed deep concern at the deterioration of law and order situation across the country.

They warned against recurrence of such crime and demanded exemplary punishment of the criminals after proper inquiry.
