Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia

Anindo Chatterjee-Tabla
Raag Kalaranjani CD Price: Tk 580/-
Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia has created a new raag called "Kalaranjani" by taking elements of two major raags, "Kalavati" and "Shivaranjani" and combining them into one giving a definite character and identity. It is a late evening raag and the mood is romantic. The artiste begins his recital with alaap and jod which is followed by two compositions. The first is slow Madhayataal (medium tempo) called Nasruk (9 beats) which is followed by a fast composition in Ektaal (12 beats).

GENDER & GENRE IN THE FOLKLORE OF MIDDLE INDIA

Author: Joyce Burkhalter Flueckiger
Publisher: Oxford
Price: Tk 693/-
Flueckiger shows how, in the Chhattisgarh region of India, folklore genres are categorized primarily in terms of the community to which a tradition 'belongs.' What does it mean, she asks, for a particular performance tradition to be identified with unmarried girls, tribal castes, or the region itself? What are the interpretive frames drawn by this system of genre identification: and what are the resulting intertextual relationships?

CIVILIZATION IN THE WEST

Author: Mark Kishlansky, Patrick Geary and Patricia O'Brien
