International Family Day today

International Family Day will be observed in Bangladesh today elsewhere in the world, in a befitting manner, reports BSS.

The day will be observed through holding of rallies and discussions highlighting this year's theme — "Family for all ages," which has been taken by the United Nations.

In observance of the day, the Ministry of Social Welfare will bring out a colourful rally from the Osmani Uddyan at 8 am today to be terminated at the Shishu Academy. The inaugural function of the day followed by a discussion will be held at the Shishu Academy auditorium at 9.30 in the morning.

President Shahabuddin Ahmed and Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, in separate messages yesterday, wished the success of the day.

Shahabuddin Ahmed said the family as an institution should be strengthened as it is vital for the progress of the mankind.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina said the improvement of peace and discipline in the family is the pre-condition to building a nation properly.

She said the family is the key to the individual and national development.

DCAF expresses solidarity with Citizens' Committee

By Staff Correspondent

Democratic Committee Against Fascism (DCAF) has expressed solidarity with the programmes of the Citizens' Committee to save 11,000 trees at Osmani Uddyan.

The committee leaders termed the government decision to cut down 11,000 trees for construction of an International Conference Centre as unrealistic, said a press release on Thursday.

They said, "this would invite ecological disaster in the capital."
