Bad luck Boldon

PORTLAND, May 16: Trinidad's Ato Boldon won the 100 metres at a US Golden Spike series athletics meet here Saturday but for second week in a row could not get a clear reading on his speed, reports

Boldon won in 9.9 seconds with Jamaica's Percival Spencer second at 10 event was hand-timed after electronic timing equipment failed and manual stopwatches were used.

Rhodes does it again

LONDON, May 16 (Internet report): It took a vintage piece of Jonty Rhodes cricket to rob Saurav Ganguly of a hundred in the clash between South Africa and India in the Group A World Cup encounter at Hove.

Ganguly cut hard only for South Africa's electrifying fielder to make a diving stop at backward point. While still on the turf, Rhodes threw to the bowler's end for Jacques Kallis to remove the bails.

The Bengali left-hander was way short of safety after gambling against one of the world's finest and had to be content with 97 from 142 balls in his 100th international.

Vitally, from South Africa's point of view, it rid them of a batsman moving into overdrive for the last six overs - and India's 253 for five might well have been some 30 runs greater. However, it still represented a pretty tough requirement of the tournament favourites in

Jubilo regain top spot

TOKYO, May 16: Asian club champion Jubilo Iwata returned to the top of Japan's J League on Saturday with a 2-1 win over Nagoya Grampus Eight, reports Reuters.

Jubilo scored twice in the span of three minutes, thanks to an own goal and a header brought home by Hideto Suzuki. The win gave table-topping Jubilo 29 points from 11 games. while last week's number one team Verdy Kawasaki dropped to third place with 27 points from 13 games with a loss to lowly Kyoto Purple Sanga.

Purple Sanga, which managed to score just 11 goals in 12 games, exploded with a goal each from Fumitake Miura. Brazilian Sidiclei and Hisashi Kurosaki in the 3-0 win over Verdy.

de France on May 15.

PARIS, May 16 First Division outfit Nantes beat second division side Sedan 1-0 to French Cup final for a second time in front of a record crowd for a domestic match at the Stade de France here on Saturday, reports AFP.

The French First Division side, appearing in their seventh final, were awarded a hotly disputed penalty in the 56th minute, converted by Olivier Monterrubio but had 20-yearold 'keeper and captain, Mickael Landreau to thank for hold-Nantes' previous Cup win was a 4-1 defeat of Auxerre in 1979. Winning coach Raynauld Denoueix said: "It is so moving I can't really believe it's happened. This is bliss." . Over 78,000 spectators were treated to a frenetic second half with Sedan, vying for promotion from the second division. piling on the pressure but unable to find the equaliser. The Canaries had Landreau to thank, though, for the win when blocking out a last minute pearler unleashed from the foot of Sedan defender Cedric Elzeard.

There was little for the massed ranks of the Stade de France to get too excited about failing to live up to the helter skelter pace of traditional Cup finals.

Chances for both sides could

Nantes players celebrate after winning the French Cup final against Sedan at the Stade comfortably be counted on one The Canaries, lying sixth in the French first division, had a decent prospect of getting off the mark in the 28th minute when Argentinian international Nestor Fabbri connected with a finely directed corner cross but his header went badly array. sailing wide of the left post. Sedan, known as the Wild Boars and vying for promotion from the second division, were then handed a gilt-edged chance of going ahead after being handed a free kick just outside the box in the 43rd minute. But although Alex di Rocco's low skimming shot evaded Nantes' defence it was only thanks to an acrobatic dive by Landreau that kept the teams goalless going into the interval. The Canaries came out from the dressing room with all guns blazing, defender Salomon Olembe unleashing a 48 minute shot from 30 metres out that shook the Sedan defence.

The deadlock was broken when Nantes were awarded a dubious 56th minute penalty with Stephane Borbiconi deemed to have pushed Frederic Da Rocha in the box.

Da Rocha recalled: "There was an arm on my back. It was up to the ref to decide whether it was a penalty."

After the referee had dismissed vigorous Sedan appeals 22-year-old Monterrubio stepped up for the spot kick, driving it past 'keeper Nicholas Sachy into the right-hand corner of the net to put the southerners into a 1-0 fead.

This acted like a spark to touch paper, the game coming to life with both sides peppering each others' goals.

Sedan were desperately unlucky not to equalize 20 minutes from time when Pierre Deblock's 25 metre shot spun agonisingly wide of the left post. The underdogs fought to the very end, with Landreau having to keep his cool to deftly catch a dangerous lob with five minutes remaining, and then save that last gusp attempt by Elzeard.
