

Noor Uddin calls for boosting software export

Minister for Science and Technology M Nooruddin Khan yesterday urged all concerned to work unitedly for attaining the desired goal of software exports, reports BSS.

The minister was exchanging views with the software exporters in the conference room of the Bangladesh Science and Industrial Research Council (BSIRC).

During the meeting, the software exporters of the country demanded further strengthening of the National Standing Committee on software export.

They discussed different aspects including the establishment of Information Technology village and the problems in the installation of telephone links.

The minister assured them of solving their problems and laid emphasis on the continuation of similar exchange of views on software exports.

JU to observe birth anniversary of Shakespeare today

By JU Correspondent
The English Department of Jahangirnagar University (JU) will observe the birth anniversary of greatest English playwright and icon of English language William Shakespeare today.

The department Chairman Ahmed Reza will preside over the function while Vice Chancellor of the university Prof Alauddin Ahmed will be present as chief guest.

A seminar titled, "Deictic Expressions in Macbeth's last great speech" will be held in the second session of the function. Ahmed Reza will present the key-note paper while Prof Alauddin Ahmed will preside.

The function will be rounded off with songs and recitations from Shakespeare's sonnets, soliloquies and monologues. Arifa Ghani will conduct the function.

BNP MP's writ

HC order stayed

The Supreme Court yesterday stayed operation of a verdict of the High Court that discharged the rule in a writ petition challenging maintainability of an election petition pending before the Divisional Election Tribunal against BNP MP Mahbubur Rahman, reports UNB.

The order of stay for 4 weeks was passed by the chamber judge, Justice Bimalendu Bikash Roy Chowdhury, and asked the petitioner for filing the regular leave petition for hearing by the full court.

Mahmudur Rahman Belayet of Awami League who was defeated in the election filed the election petition before the Divisional Election Tribunal challenging election of Mahbubur Rahman.

Against the move of Belayet, Mahbubur Rahman had filed a writ in the High Court which was discharged on May 16. The Court also ordered that Tk 10,000 be paid by the writ petitioner Mahbubur Rahman.

Quamrul takes over as PDB chairman

Engr Quamrul Islam Siddique took over as the new chairman of Bangladesh Power Development Board (PDB) yesterday. He replaced Nuruddin M Kamal, a PDB press release said, reports BSS.

Addressing the senior officials of the PDB after assuming office Siddique sought support and help to overcome the present problems in the power sector.

Prior to his present assignment, he was the Chief Engineer of LOED where he worked for about 33 years.

Siddique graduated in Civil Engineering from BUET in 1967. He actively took part in the War of Liberation in 1971. He obtained Masters in Urban and Regional Planning from University of Sheffield, UK, in 1979.

Siddique was awarded Bhashani Gold Medal, Poet Jasimuddin Gold Medal, IEB's Gold Medal and CR Das Gold Medal.

He has recently been awarded the internationally recognised Chartered Engineer Fellowship by the Institute of Civil Engineers, UK. The World Bank nominated him as the International Road Federation Person of the year for his outstanding contribution to the road sector development in Bangladesh.

Siddique is also the Chairperson of the Bangladesh Water Partnership, a body of the Global Water Partnership, Stockholm.
