The directive came from a meeting of the committee held yesterday with its chairman M. Rahmat Ali in the chair.

Taking stock of the country's overall law and order situation, the meeting said 150 temporary police camps have been set up in different parts of the country, including the southwestern region.

The meeting was informed that police, Ansar and paramilitary BDR in their combined operation across the country arrested over 3,000 criminals and recovered 500 firearms in last one month.
