Memorial lecture at DU tomorrow

The Jyotirmoy Guhathakura Memorial Lecture 1999, organised by the English Department Alumni Society of Dhaka University, will be held tomorrow at 4:30 pm at Natmandal near the Dhaka University Library, says a press release.

Professor Dr Serajul Islam Choudhury of English Department, University of Dhaka, will deliver the memorial lecture on 'Secularism and the Bengali Middle Class.'

Twenty-six gold bars weighing 10 grams each were recovered from a Pakistan national Mahmood Hasan in the early hours of yesterday.

Officials said that Hasan tried to evade customs checking and made his way through the Green Channel without giving any declaration.

But on suspicion, and officials searched him with a metal detector and found 26 gold bars kept inside the heels of his shoes.

On Wednesday, the surveillance team seized 430 tolas of gold ornaments from the possession of one Pradip. Pradip who had arrived at ZIA from Singapore tried to pass through the Green Channel.

But on suspicion, he was taken to the customs office for checking and the ornaments were found in his pocket.

In another incident on the same day, Customs officials recovered 100 grams of gold bars from a Pakistan national Mohammed Hanif. Hanif, a transit passenger arrived at the airport from Singapore on Wednesday night.
