Plea not to name any organisation after Bangabandhu without approval

The Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Memorial Trust yesterday called upon all concerned not to name any organisation after the martyrs of August 15 including the Father of the Nation without prior approval of the trust, reports BSS.

In a statement, member secretary of the trust Sheikh Hafizur Rahman expressed his dismay over the naming of different organisations after the martyrs of August 15, 1975, including the Father of the Nation, without the approval of the trust.

He said that the trust had earlier informed the members of the public not to name any organisation after the name of the martyrs of August 15, 1975. Hafiz said that Sheikh Helaluddin, MP, and Nur-e-Alam Chowdhury, MP, have been given the responsibility to carry out investigation and take necessary action after discussing with the government.
