Bremen break Bayern hearts

BERLIN. June 13: Werder Bremen won a dramatic penalty shoot-out to upset mighty Bayern Munich in Saturday's German Cup final,

The tense tie was locked at 1l after 90 minutes and at the end extra time and Bayern would have completed their third domestic league and Cup double after 1969 and 1986 but for a superb performance from Bremen goalkeeper Frank Rost.

Rost, who had helped his team survive intense pressure during regular play with a series of brilliant saves in regular play, stopped a shot from veteran international Lothar Matthaeus to give the northern club a 5-4 victory in the shootout for their fourth Cup triumph after 1961, 1991 and

It was a bitter end to the season for Bayern, who had conceded two goals in injury time in their 2-1 defeat by Manchester United in the European Cup final on May 26 in Barcelona.

The Bavarians, reduced to 10 men when midfielder Mario Basler was sent off for a second bookable offence with six minutes left in extra time, once again had victory in sight.

Kahn punched out Bremen's second penalty, by defender Jens Todt, and the Munich club, who captured their 15th German league crown this season, would have sealed the shoot-out 5-4 and lifted the Cup for the 10th time if playmaker Stefan Effenberg's shot had not flown over the crossbar.

Werder made a dream start, opening the scoring after three minutes when Ukraine's Yuri Maximov collected a fine pass from fellow midfielder Christoph Dabrowski to beat Kahn from close range.

Bayern levelled just before to break thanks to striker Carsten Janeker, who was beautifully set up from inside the box by Ef-

Bremen, who ended the Bundesliga a modest 13th after fighting against relegation, put up a brave challenge. Rost and a bit of luck did the rest.

Two free-kicks from Basler, in the 17th and 43rd minutes, went just wide. But the chance Bayern could not afford to miss came in the 54th minute when Iranian substitute Ali Daei raced into the penalty area unchallenged and hit the bar.

"We should have wrapped it up before extra time," Bayern coach Ottmar Hitzfeld said. "We wasted too many opportunities. But I'm not blaming the players. They played a great season and they can be proud of them-

Bayern certainly did not play their best match of an eventful season and looked clumsy at times.

Bremen, who had expended a lot of effort in their struggle to remain in the top flight, gave their all in a fantastic atmosphere in front of more than 75,000 fans packing Berlin's Olympic stadium.

"I'm delighted for our fans, who were tremendous." Rost

"This was the most important match of the season with the one against Schalke 04, which we had to win to stay in the first division," added the night's hero. "I must say I am pleased that we knocked Bayern from their perch.

Gazza

LONDON, June 13: England manager Kevin Keegan has told Paul Gascoigne that the door to the national team could still be open if he can get himself back in shape, reports Reuters. "The onus is on Paul Gascoigne to force me to put him in," Keegan was quoted as saying in Sunday newspapers.

The Sunday People quoted him as saying, "I'm hoping, the same as others, that this summer Gazza will do enough to make himself available for England next season."

England, who have drawn their last two European championship qualifiers and are fac-ing a tough challenge to reach the playoffs, are in desperate need of a quality midfielder.
Middlesbrough's Gascoigne

was once his country's bright hope in that position but has struggled with fitness and drinking problems and was dropped for the 1998 World Cup. He has barely played in the premier league since Christmas and has looked sluggish on the

Keegan said it was going to be tough to find a creative force like Gascoigne was in his prime, a man who could conjure a goal out of nothing or change the flow of a game. "I am not being unkind to the midfield players I have got. We have some good young players," he said.

Pakistan's third in a row

BRISBANE, June 13: Hosts Australia scored a 2-0 victory over Spain while Pakistan were held to their third draw in a row at the Champions' Trophy field hockey tournament on Sunday, reports AP.

Pakistan missed a succession of good chances in a 2-2 draw with South Korea. The Koreans held a 1-point lead after playing three matches, with Australia second following two wins from two games.

Pakistan were third with three points and need a victory over England in their next match. "The bad fact is that we conceding late goals in our games," said Pakistan's Atif Bashir. "We have dropped six points so far and we have to overcome this."

Pakistan led 2-1 through Sohail Abbas and Haider Hussain but conceded a 60th minute goal to Kang Keon-Wook after Yeo Woon-kon scored in the first term.

Australian teenager Craig Victory scored his second goal of the tournament to open the scoring against Spain.

The 19-year-old scored two minutes before the break for a 1-0 halftime lead to continue his dream international tournament debut, following a goal against England in Friday night's opening match win.

Victory, playing only his fourth international game, is among several young players being groomed by coach Terry Walsh in the lead upto next year's Sydney Olympic Games. The agile and speedy striker was perfectly positioned beside the net after gathering a pass from Queenslander Troy Elder.

Elder, 22, notched a goal of his own in the first minute of the second half, with a paintshaking blow to the back of the net.

Keegan tempts Henman, Sampras finale

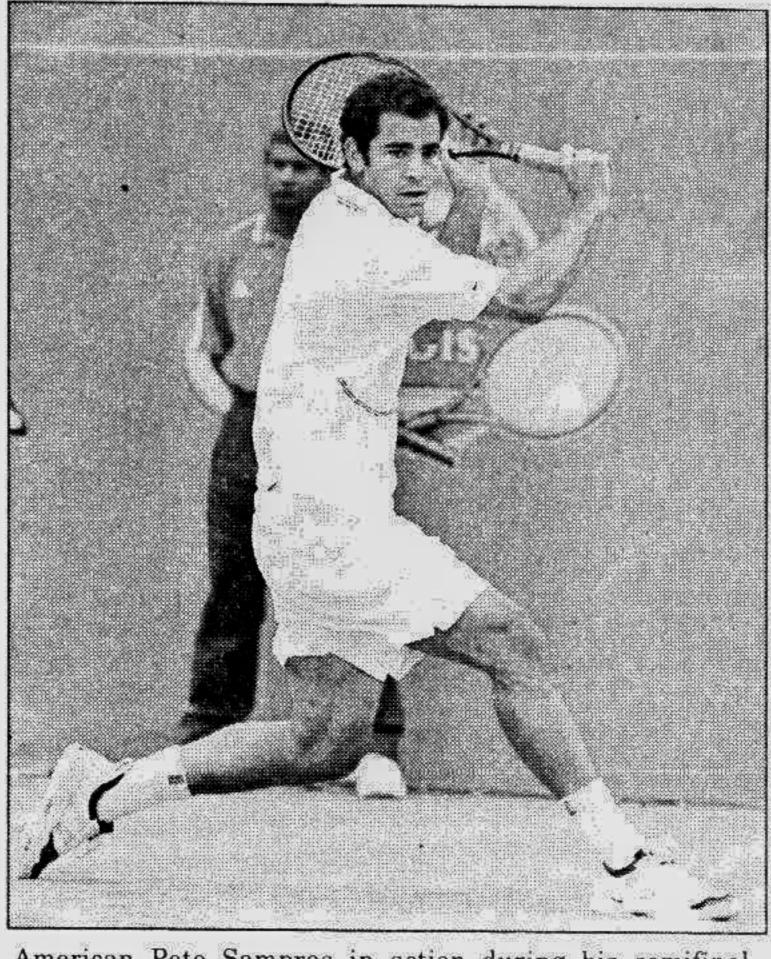

LONDON, June 13: Tim Henman secured his place in the final of the London Queen's Club grasscourt championships today, finishing his rain-delayed semifinal against Sargis Sargsian with the minimum of fuss 6-1, 6-3, reports Reuters.

Atletico conquer Real MADRID, June 13: Real Madrid remain second

Atletico Madrid secured their first division survival on Saturday by beating local ri vals Real Madrid 3-1 in their first home league win since January, reports Reuters. "It has been a tough season, with all the injuries we have had and some bad results, but at least we can now concentrate on next year." Atletico president Jesus Gil said. It was Atletico's first league win over Real for seven seasons and a first for Atletico coach

Radomir Antic. By contrast the pressure will mount on Real coach John Toshack, the defeat coming hard on the heels of Wednesday's Spanish Cup 6-0 semifinal first leg thrashing at Valencia.

Fifth placed Deportivo Coruna lost ground with a 1-1 draw at home to relegationthreatened Extremadura. Toshack blamed fitness problems with three of his key players as one of the causes for the defeat. "Before the game three players - Fernando Hierro. Clarence Seedorf and Predrag Mijatovic - needed medical treatment. We decided that they should all play," he said.

sixth game and his experience began to count. He forced the match into a tie-break and simply waited for Hewitt to make the mistakes. "It came down to a couple of

"I am just pleased to have won. It was tough to come off for rain because I felt I was just finding my rhythm and I was a bit cold starting the third.

Sampras will regain the number one spot from Russian Yevgeny Kafelnikov and will definitely retain it until after Wimbledon which means the matches Ivan Lendl's record 270 had chances to equalise but at the end we lost our heads and made it easy for Atletico."

area after just five minutes. Fernando Morientes equalised for Real after 28 minutes for his 18th goal of the season, his shot skimming off the chest of Atletico goalkeeper Francisco Molina.

Real's Roberto Carlos then forced a tremendous flying save just after the hour with a 25 me-
