Budget '99

Zillur accuses BNP chief of misleading people

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday accused Leader of the Opposition and BNP chief Begum Khaleda Zia of misleading people through "false campaign" as part of her party's "endemic falsehood in an abortive bid to create an artificial issue," reports BSS.

"No new taxes have proposed in the budget and it has not triggered any price-hike of essentials as claimed by Begum Zia," he said while speaking at a post-budget discussion arranged by Dhaka Taxes Bar Association at a hotel here.

He added: "The allegation of imposing new taxes is nothing but a campaign of endemic falsehood of BNP. She is trying in vain to create an artificial issue for campaign ignoring the reality and exploiting the people."

Deputy Speaker Abdul Hamid Advocate also spoke at the discussion chaired by the president of the association Mohammad Selim Khan.

The minister termed the proposals of the budget as "realistic and pro-people" saying that it gave high emphasis on the social sector through increased allocation for education, health, industries, poverty alleviation and rural infrastructure.

"It reflected a clear guideline and government's commitment for protecting interests of local industries and reforming the tax structure to keep pace with the competitive world trade in view of open market economy."

General secretary of the association, Abdullah Shahadat Khan and Advocate Sohrab Hossain, among others, spoke on the occasion.

Pak envoy makes farewell call on Hasina

Pakistan High Commissioner in Dhaka Karam Elahi yesterday made a farewell call on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her Sangsad Bhavan office, reports UNB.

He said during his four and a half years' stay in Bangladesh he witnessed a good number of development works and progress attained by Bangladesh in different sectors. "We also saw the successful tackling of devastating floods in the country."

Thanking the outgoing High Commissioner, the PM hoped that the bilateral ties between the two countries would continue to develop further. She also recalled the donation made by Pakistan during the devastating deluge to PM's Relief Fund.

Foreign Secretary Shafi Sami and Mrs Elahi were present.

Asian envoys to UN briefed on upcoming Dhaka peace confce

The Asian envoys to the United Nations (UN) were briefed by the Permanent Mission of Bangladesh to the UN on June 15 about Asian Parliamentary Conference for Peace and Cooperation, scheduled in Dhaka from September 2 to 6, a release of the mission in New York received yesterday said, reports BSS.

Secretary of Jatiya Sangsad Secretariat Monzur-e-Mowla participated in the briefing as the keynote speaker. He highlighted different objectives of organising such a conference and informed the envoys about its organisational aspects.

It is expected that the conference will provide a forum for Parliamentarians to come closer and exchange views on how they could contribute in furthering an atmosphere of peace in Asia.

Outgoing FAO representative calls on minister

Out-going FAO Representative Hirohiko Kunuma called on Health and Family Welfare Minister Salauddin Yusuf at his office yesterday, reports BSS.

They discussed different programmes for nutritional improvement initiated by the government.

The FAO Representative praised the present government's programme for improving the health services of the people, said an official handout. The Health Minister commended the works of the outgoing FAO Representative during his tenure in Bangladesh.

SMALL ENTERPRISE PROMOTION

INVITATION TO LOCAL AGENCIES

An innovative approach to Business Development Services (BDS) for Bangladesh has been conceptualized. In this respect an international donor agency is in the process of launching a new project in Small Enterprise Promotion.

- The project will be implemented by an experienced international agency in collaboration with local partner(s).
- Three international agencies have been short-listed to submit detailed bids.
- These agencies will visit Bangladesh from the 5th to 8th of July 1999.
- On the 5th July, a meeting will be organized to allow these agencies to meet the potential local partners (i.e. NGOs, Consulting Firms).

If you think that your organization has the relevant experience and interest to participate in the project, please send an application stating your experience in small enterprise promotion and capacity to manage a project. Please attach an "organizational profile" with the application to reach the following address by 24 June 1999. A selected group of applicants will be invited to the meeting on the 5th of July to introduce themselves. The donor agency reserves the right to accept or reject any application. For further details please contact. M.S. Alam Mia, Programme Director.
