One Fine Day

June 20 at 10:00 PM on Star Movies
Michelle Pfeiffer is a career-minded architect/super mum, taking on the demands of single parenting in New York. George Clooney stars as a hard-driving newspaper columnist an every-other-weekend Dad. When the couple are inadvertently thrown together for one chaotic day, the only thing they have in common are identical cellular phones... but next thing you know, they're falling in love.

The Focus

Mr Bean 1 Hour Special

June 21 at 6:00 PM on Star World

In this 52 minute film chronicles the birth and development of the most internationally famous contemporary comic creation Rowan Atkinson's MR BEAN. The normally reclusive Rowan talks candidly in the documentary of his influences and inspirations in creating Bean. From Rowan's early shy school days in the hallowed cloisters of Durham Choristers School, through the dawn of his comic genius at Oxford University and the grueling touring of his One Man Show, to first television exposure in NOT THE NINE O'CLOCK NEWS and BLACKADDER we explore the rise to fame of Rowan and the genesis of the hilarious MR BEAN.

Fried GREEN TOMATOES

June 19 at 10:00 pm on Star Movies

This highly acclaimed film is a deeply moving tale of family and friendship set in the heart of rural Alabama. It is a remembrance of youth and one woman's indomitable spirit and like all good tales, it connects with experiences people share the world over-weddings, funerals, morals, retribution and the occasional murder.

50 GLORIOUS YEARS OF INDIAN CLASSICAL MUSIC

Independent India's Finest
Classical Music
Bade Gulam Ali Khan to Zakir
Hussain

A set of 5 cassettes Price Tk: 500/-

The fifty years of independent India have seen Indian Classical music pass through a significant phase of metamorphosis. Independence coincided with the post-war era, leading to the eclipse of feudal patronage on one hand and the emergence of a new industrialised urbane society the other.
