'Management of water bodies should be with Land Ministry'

Fisheries and Livestock Minister ASM Abdur Rab yesterday stressed the need for transferring the management of water bodies to his ministry from the Land Ministry for smooth promotion of fish resources, reports UNB.

Presiding over a meeting of National Committee on Fisheries, he also felt the need for adequate credits for fisheries sector.

The Minister lauded the success of the drive against use of "current nets" in different areas and called upon the fisheries officials and deputy commissioners to be more active to stop netting of fish fries.

The meeting also discussed commercial farming and export of crabs and tortoises, raising the license fee of marine trawlers, establishing shrimp hatcheries and discouraging offshore catching of shrimp fries.

The secretary and senior officials of the ministry and different departments, presidents of Marine Fisheries Association, National Shrimp Farmers Association and Frozen Foods Exporters Association were present at the meeting.
