BGCTA protests govt decision

By Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Government College Teachers' Association (BGCTA) yesterday protested a government decision making 83 lecturers permanent into positions outside their cadre recently.

BGCTA at a meeting with its president Dr Ali Akbar Khan Dollar in the chair expressed concern and resentment at the absorption of the college teachers into positions outside their respective cadres.

The meeting also resolved that the government order regarding absorption of lecturers issued on June 6, violated section 7 of the Bangladesh Civil Service Appointment Rules 1981, section eight of Bangladesh Civil Service (General Education) Composition and Cadre Rules 1980 and the Education Ministry order in this connection.

The meeting threatened of agitation if the government fails to start procedure for promotion of college teachers through solution of all cases lying with courts regarding promotion.
