Website launched to highlight nation's progress

The government launched an internet website titled "Bangladesh Marches Ahead" yesterday to project worldwide country's progress and three years' successes of the present government, reports UNB.

Foreign Minister, Abdus Samad Azad inaugurated the website at a simple ceremony at his ministry by browsing at (<http://www.bangladeshonline.com/gob/mofa>).

Produced by the External Publicity Wing of the ministry, the official Home Page aims at highlighting three years' success of the Sheikh Hasina government worldwide through the information superhighway.

The subjects with pictures on the hype are: country profile (1998-99), history, the presidency, law, justice and parliamentary affairs, peace dawns in the CHT, poverty alleviation, the economy, local government, foreign relations, information and mass media, disaster management and relief operations, education, health and the vision for the future.

The website is linked with the e-mail address of the Prime Minister's office to help interested people send their comments and suggestions on the site.
