APTECH

Today, a B.A., B.Com. or B.Sc. is not enough. Your child will need more.

Put him through a complete computer course. Make him an ACCP.

Today, whatever field your child wishes to specialise in, knowledge of computers is a must. To be precise, industry-relevant knowledge. Enroll him for the ACCP (Aptech Certified Computer Professional) program which has been designed after extensive research conducted among 398 companies.

Specific computer courses for practically everyone, every child and for every career plan.

Aptech offers courses for children who want to pursue a career in fields as far ranging as marketing, management and accounting. That will teach them skills that are used in their chosen field.

Over 50,000 computer jobs next year.

The Government of Bangladesh has now recognised the IT industry as a thrust sector. The demand-supply gap for IT professionals is widening day by day. By securing a professional qualification in IT, your children can assure themselves of a position in today's job market.

Methodology, course content and international tie-ups for complete training.

Our courses focus on the latest technologies. And we follow modern training methodology that offers benefits like On-line training, Live Projects and Personality Development. We have alliances with Microsoft, Regents College (USA), Open University of British Columbia (Canada) and Indira Gandhi National Open University (New Delhi). Aptech is Asia's first ISO 9001 certified computer education institution for Education Support Services. Which means, unlike a short or inexpensive course, Aptech ensures thorough training.

We suggest, therefore, that you drop in at the nearest Aptech centre. We will tell you how you can chart a better future for your child.
