An Ordinary Story with an Extra-ordinary Touch

Spardha: Theatre group's 26th production

By Cultural Correspondent

Theatre's 26th production "Spardha" was staged at the Guide House Auditorium. Written by famous playwright Abdullah Al-Mamun, "Spardha" is an ordinary story of a middle class family, their happiness and sorrow, love and fight, loyalty and greed. Directed by the author him-self "Spardha" was very delicately performed by the Theatre's brilliant performers. It was first staged on November 27, 1993. The show was interrupted for an hour due to electricity failure.

"Spardha" is a story of a family, their conflicts and love among the members living together under the same roof. The father, Mr. Ahmed, played by Abdullah Al-Mamun is a retired government officer who lived his life honestly with his wife. Ferdausi Majumder, played the role of the mother, Mrs. Ahmed. Robby, their only son played by Apon Ahsan, is also like his father, honest and generous and very obedient to his parents. Robby works in a government office. Robby's hot-tempered wife Kona, played by Tanvin Sweety, is a working woman. Their only son Bablu studies in Darjeeling. Trapa Majumder played the role of Lima, an only daughter of Mr Ahmed.

The story portrays some very typical scenes of our daily life with some exquisite touch by Abdullah Al Mamun, that made the drama excellent. The love between husband and wife, the quarrels between wife and mother-in-law and in between the family members are made more interesting through some delicate comedies. The climax of the story turns as Kona receives the phone call of her son Bablu, demanding for thirty thousand taka that he needs urgently. Unable to gather the money, Robby turns to his father for his pension money. But as his father rejected his son's request a fight starts in between them.

A drama becomes successful not only through performance but also through the dedication of the people behind the scenes. The stage design by Hasan Ahmed had a completely new look.

On mentioning the name Guide House Auditorium and Mahila Smati Auditorium glimpses of stage drama passes over our mind. It is true that among the few places were the dramas are staged, Guide House and Mahila Samiti Auditorium are the most renowned ones. But their current condition is very poor. Especially when the electricity fails. No back-up system is available to them. For this not only do the audience suffer but also the plays are hampered a lot.

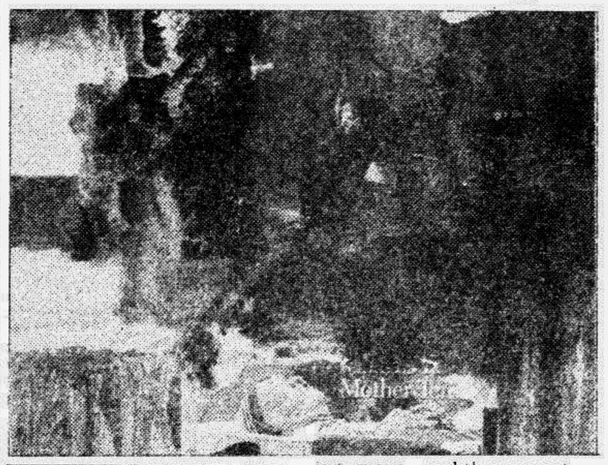
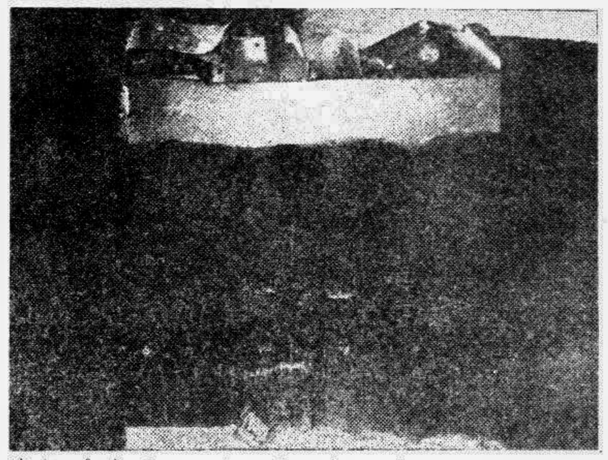
DAC - Creating Ripples





By Cultural Correspondent

THE Exhibition titled 'Paintings '99' in Gallery 21has turned out to be a major success. It is not only the art-enthusiasts who are piling into the gallery to appreciate the works of the artists of Dhaka Art Circle - the general people are also pouring in, in huge numbers to, to admire them. The best thing about it all is that the exhibition has aroused an interest in the people not seen before. They want to understand what the paintings mean - and they are actually enjoying themselves, trying to figure out what the paintings are all about, using their imagination to the fullest, and then comparing their own ideas with that of the artists who have created the art-pieces.

When asked, a viewer stated that the best part of the exhibition was that there were many artists (well, eleven artists) to examine and understand. She said that it was a delight to compare each and point out their differences and similarities and distinguish between their style, use of colour and their feelings portrayed through their canvasses. Another said, "I loved Swapan Chowdhury's paintings and the way he used the colours red and blue. At first sight it just seems like a colour composition with bits of paper - but a second look tell a different story'. A lot of Chowdhury's popularity has a lot to do with 'Muktir Gaan', especially where the present generation is concerned. They can hardly believe that Muktir Gaan's Swapan Da is today's Swapan Chowdhury.

Chandra Shekhar Dey too is very liked - proved by a viewer who proclaimed, 'He used just a pen to do all this?! How could he? It is so fabulous - he must have a lot of time to spare! Maybe that's why he called his art pieces 'Time!" Pretty outspoken, one should think! Works of Late Golam Sarwar too is quite popular with the audience who found solace in the dark, deep colours he had used.

The exhibition will continue till the 12 of this month - and there is no doubt that more and more people will be pouring in to delight in the works of such a talented pool of artists.

New Season

Buffy the Vampire Slayer (Series 2)

on Star World at 10 pm

High school student by day and vampire slayer by night best describes the title character of Buffy The Vampire Slayer, a thrilling action-packed television series cleverly laced with comedy and horror which is loosely based on the 1992 feature film of the same name. In its second season, the critically acclaimed cult hit stars Emmy Award-winner Sarah Michelle Gellar as Buffy, Nicholas Brendon as Xander, Alyson Hannigan as Willow, Charisma Carpenter as Cordelia, David Boreanaz as Angel, and Anthony Stewart Head as Giles. Gellar stars as Buffy, a quick-witted heroine whose birthright as the sole slayer of her generation is to protect the world from the undead. Wanting nothing more than to be a normal teenager, Buffy attends high school and tries to act like a typical student. However, at night she is a marital arts master, patrolling the streets of Sunnydale, trying to keep her underworld foes at bay. Her new hometown sits atop a Hellmouth, a mystical porthole where demons of all sorts converge. Buffy remains cheerful and fierce throughout while trying to save the world and study for a test at the same time.

In School Hard — Buffy's mother and friends become tapped inside Sunnydale High School when vampire named Spike launches an attack against the Slayer.

New Season

The Practice (series 2)

on Star World at 12 midnight

The practice, the critically acclaimed, one-hour ensemble law drama from multi-award winning writer/producer David E. Kelley and headed by Dylan McDermott, tells the story of a group of defense lawyers serving a disenfranchised part of society. This season, Lara Flynn Boyle ("Twin Peaks") joins the cast as Helen Gamble, a District Attorney who collides personally and professionally with the firm. In the series, set in a small Boston law office, Bobby Donnell (McDermott) is a struggling but passionate underdog who takes on cases based on his instincts — not the client's ability to pay. With the recent settlement the firm won against the TL Michaels Tobacco Company on behalf of their client, Emerson Ray, the bill collectors are momentarily off their backs; but Bobby knows the money will one last so long if they don t turn the corner soon.

In Reasonable Doubts — Bobby has an affair with a beautiful client who is accused of committing murder.
