ICRC office to be opened soon, team appraises President

An office of International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) will be opened soon, reports UNB.

A three-member regional delegation for South Asia of Geneva-based ICRC appraised President Shahabuddin Ahmed when they made a courtesy call on him at Bangabhaban yesterday.

Delegation leader Michel Ducraux said ICRC delegate responsible for Bangladesh has already started working in close collaboration with Bangladesh Red Crescent Society.

He appreciated the active involvement of President 'Shahabuddin in the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and thanked Bangladesh for allowing ICRC to carry out its humanitarian activities in the country.

Ducraux also briefed the President of the ICRC's role and activities in Bangladesh during and after the Liberation War, at present and in the near future. He sought President support in these activities.

President Shahabuddin appreciated the move for opening an ICRC office in Dhaka and said this will help coordinate their humanitarian activities and operation in Bangladesh.

Preparations on for water forum in The Hague

Preparations for holding the 2nd World Water Forum and the Ministerial Conference in March next year in the Hague has been progressing well with the hosts, the Netherlands, making all preparations to make the events a success, information available in the city yesterday said, reports BSS.

Guided by the World Commission on Water for the 21st century, the Forum and Conference will discuss the World Water Council's Vision for Water, Life and the Environment.

Bangladesh has been invited to take part in the Ministerial Conference where discussions will also focus on the Framework for Action prepared by the Global Water Partnership.

The Swedish government hosted the first such gathering on water in 1996 in Stockholm when a Water Symposium was held.

Besides the Dutch government, a number of international organisations like UNDP, World Bank, World Meteorological Organisation, UNESCO, FAO and WHO are cooperating in holding the Forum and the conference.
