Sayed opens extended bldg of Betar today

CHITTAGONG, July 8: State Minister for Information Prof. Abu Sayeed will inaugurate the extended building of Bangladesh Betar at Agrabad here tomorrow, an official source said today, reports BSS.

A special musical programme styled 'Sonali Swadesh' will be arranged in honour of the state minister on the occasion.

The extended building of Bangladesh Betar at Agrabad constructed at an expenditure of about Taka 54 lakh will solve its accommodation problem besides facilitating the preparation of creative cultural programmes and improvement of technical side of Bangladesh Betar in Chittagong.

BNP brought out a procession in support of the hartal called by the opposition alliance yesterday.

Dictators won't get any chance to grab power: Manju

Dissident Jatiya Party leader and Communications Minister Anwar Hossain Manju yesterday said autocrats and dictators will not more get any opportunity to grab power in Bangladesh, reports UNB.

In the next millennium, any attempt to grab power will not see success. There is no chance for autocrats and dictators. There is no chance for Ershad, Zia, Ayub and Marcos. There are chances for Hasina, Khaleda and others," he said in a parliament.

Manju regretted for his past association with the "autocratic Ershad government" and said people would no more allow anyone to come to power, who does not believe in people's power.

Criticising the Opposition for opposing things for opposition's sake, he said, "Isn't it contradictory that you oppose tax when you are in Opposition and impose tax when you are in power."

Demanding action against corruption, Manju said he is deeply disturbed to see an elected UP member being jailed for misappropriating only 2 tons of wheat and those who defalcated thousands of crores of Taka from government funds remaining untouched.

"If you can supply documents of corruption of Benazir Bhutto, why don't you give those of Ershad?" he said indirectly asking the Swiss Bank to provide Ershad's evidences of corruption to the investigators.

Blasting the Anti-Corruption Bureau for its failure to investigate properly against the money launders, he favoured establishment of a new bureau for investigating corruption charges.

The Communications Minister said an elected government cannot be overthrown by agitation programmes like hartal and hurling bombs on police and people. As long as people are with the government, it will remain in power. None can oust a government they elected.

About the consensus government, he said, "Although I always call it an Awami League government it is no secret that BNP MPs are also members of Hasina Cabinet."

He called upon the government to get rid of financing the deficit of the government owned industries, electricity authority and government owned service sectors like Railway.

'No special tax for construction of Padma bridge'

Communications Minister Anwar Hossain told parliament yesterday that no special tax would be imposed on people for construction of the proposed bridge over the Padma, reports UNB.

Replying to a supplementary question from Abdul Latif Mirza (AL-Sirajganj), he said the feasibility study for the bridge was completed with expense for it drawn from the income of the Bangabandhu Bridge.

The construction of the bridge would begin after completing all formalities, including ensuring foreign financing, the minister said adding discussions were held with different donor countries and agencies for this purpose.

He told Hosne Ara (AL) that construction of the Meghna bridge would start from September while the work for the construction of a bridge over Brahmaputra would also start within this fiscal year.

Replying to a question, the minister said the government compensation is continuing for the families on both sides of the Jamuna affected by the construction of the Bangabandhu Bridge.

No shortage in gas supply

The gas production in the country is quite normal now and there is no shortage in supply as the Jalalabad Gas Field resumed production from July 8, a Petrobangla press release said yesterday, reports BSS.

Gas production at the field was suspended on June 20 owing to shortage of propane gas. Normal production at the field began by importing propane gas from abroad on urgent basis, the press release said.

JS body discusses functions of sub-registrars, marriage registrars

A meeting of the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs yesterday discussed the appointment and functions of Sub-Registrars and Marriage Registrars, reports UNB.

Committee Chairman Suranjit Sengupta chaired the meeting attended by its members Advocate Rahmat Ali, Advocate M Shahjahan Miah and Advocate Sheikh Mohammad Nurul Huq.

Acting Law Secretary Mohammad Sahul Hossain and officials concerned were present, says a Parliament Secretariat press release.

New phone numbers of US embassy

The US Embassy in Dhaka announces the new telephone numbers for consular inquiries, reports BSS.

The numbers are 883800, 883801, 883802, 883803 and 883804. Calls placed to other US Embassy phone numbers cannot be forwarded to the Consulate. The US Embassy regrets the short notice about this change, a USIS release said yesterday.

Akhtaruzzaman condemns killing of policeman

BNP lawmaker Major (ret'd) Akhtaruzzaman called upon his party to purge those who are trying to "mislead" the organisation to the path of terrorism, reports UNB.

Condemning the killing of a policeman in a bomb blast on Wednesday evening in the capital, Akhter, who has been suspended from the party recently, said those elements were out to bring the party in a state of confrontation with police.

"Killing police is not democracy," he said over phone from his constituency in Kishoreganj, terming it "terrorist act".

The embroiled BNP MP called upon the leadership to oust those responsible from the party.
