Curtain Falls on Oscar Film Week '99

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

FOR movie buffs of Dhaka the Oscar film week was a rare treat. Started from 4 of July the weeklong film festival organized by the Dhaka University Film Society was held at the Shawkat Osman Memorial Hall, Central Public Library. Some outstanding award-winning movies such as Ben Hur, Roman Holidays, Godfather etc were shown at the festival. The closing ceremony was held at the same venue yesterday. Started at quarter past six the ceremony was an hour and fifteen minutes late due to the delayed note from the chief guest, Professor Abu Sayeed, State Minister for Information. Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University Professor A. K. Azad Chowdhury could not also attend the ceremony timely, but he promised to come and watch the movie after the ceremony.

The ceremony started with the speech from the working member Shuman Jahid. In his speech he spoke about the film society's hard work for the festival. The ticket price for the festival was very cheap so that people of all categories can watch the movies and get entertained, and the society's greatest achievement is in their happiness, he added. In his speech senior and working member, Rafique Zaman said that in twenty nine sessions they have screened twenty-one Hollywood classics and each and every show was almost house full. People in this bad weather stood from 8 a.m. for the tickets.

Film personality Kabir Anwar was present as special guest. Talking about good movies he said about directing movies. A director must have knowledge in different fields for directing a film; James Cameron of the great film Titanic has a very good technological knowledge. Audiences go to the theater and watch the movies, but the director and the people behind the scenes have to do all the hard work. He also talked about the poor instruments and technology, which is available in our country. Without proper instrument no matter how good any person is can make good movies. He finished his speech with Oscar award's past history. In 1927 Luit Mayer executive director of MGM (Metro Golden Mayer) formed motion picture award committee. The first Oscar award was given in 1929. At first the design of the crest was different. The original design was improvised by Witty in 1937. There are more than 700 people working for Oscar awards.

Chief Moderator of Dhaka University Film Society A. A. M. S. Arefin Siddique who was also present as special guest spoke at the occasion. In his speech, referring to Kabir Anwar's speech he said the infrastructural defects of Bangladesh Film Society is very serious. Yearly around 1500 million taka is spend in this field. Where is that money going? Hardware facility can be improvised with some amount of money, which the Government can provide, but we need skilled person for doing the jobs. Skilled people should be created first; they should be properly educated in this sector. With his speech the Oscar Film Week '99 closing ceremony came to an end. After the ceremony the great movie The Godfather was previewed.

The weeklong Oscar Film Week '99 was a very successful event. Around 14000 audience came to watch some of the greatest movies of all time. People of all ages came and enjoyed their time. Rainy days and even the strike could not stop them. More festivals should encourage the spirit and arrangements should be made for more movie loving freaks.
