PANDIT SHIV KUMAR SHARMA

Raga Puriya
Raga Puriya is derived from Marwa thaat (parent scale). The notes (scale) of Marwa, Puriya and Sohini are identical, but each one is different in its characteristic which is due to combination of different sets of notes. The fifth note i.e. Pancham (Pa) is omitted in Puriya, that is why its characteristic is known as Shadav (which means the scale has six notes).

SONAR BANGLA

Agricultural Growth and Agrarian Change in West Bengal and Bangladesh

Edited by Ben Rogaly Barbara Harriss-White Sugata Bose

Publisher: UPL

Price: 500/-

The book is divided into three parts dealing respectively with agricultural growth, poverty and well-being; policies and practices; and changing agrarian structures. The book leaves official data with extended research in rural Bengal as well as detailed archival research. The contributions represent diverse ideological and disciplinary approaches, and even provide sharply contesting interpretations which reflect the debates currently raging around the themes covered in the volume.

Spotlight

TOMORROW NEVER Dies

Four shows at Modhumita everyday
Secret agent 007 finds himself in yet another mind blowing adventure when he is assigned to investigate why a British naval vessel is sunk off the coast of Vietnam. The maze that surrounds the mystery brings James Bond face to face with a former lover, who also happens to be the wife of the notorious Elliot Carver.
Tomorrow Never Dies is a high octane account of media power as a lethal weapon, when global communications is in the wrong hands, a condition that can even change the course of history. Pierce Brosnan returns in the 18th installation of the successful film franchise as the world's most loveable spy. Others in the cast include Jonathan Price as Elliot Carver, Teri Hatcher as Paris, Samantha Bond as Miss Moneypenny and Michelle Yeoh.
