Muggers stab Star journalist

By Staff Correspondent

Muggers stabbed a journalist of The Daily Star and snatched away valuables and cash worth around Tk 2500 from him near the Railway Rest House in the city's Motiheel area at around 10 pm Monday.

A gang of about six snatchers equipped with sharp weapons intercepted the rickshaw carrying Z A M Khairuzzaman, in-charge of the National Desk of The Daily Star, while he was returning home. The snatchers forcibly took away the wrist watch, necessary documents and the money bag by stabbing in his left arm.

The area between Pir Zangl Mazar and Kamalapur Railway Station remains dark and desolate at night as there is no street light or police patrol in the area.
