

Road-march won't dislodge govt, Zillur says

Ruling party general secretary Zillur Rahman berated opposition's road-march as a wasteful political trickery and said no such movement or conspiracy could dislodge their elected government, reports UNB.

He made the observations as the opposition alliance led by former Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia's BNP yesterday embarked upon road and launch marches across the country as part of their 'oust-government' movement.

"Finding no other issues for movement and to divert people's attention from the achievements of the government during the last three years, the opposition took recourse to the road-march programme lavishing lot of black money, which demonstrates their political shrewdness," said the LGD and Cooperatives Minister.

He was addressing a meeting and several rallies at Bhairab of Kishoreganj marking fisheries week that began across the country yesterday.

The minister inspected progress works of various rural infrastructure-development schemes under implementation at Bhairab and also addressed a women's rally at Jagannathpur in Kishoreganj.

Zillur Rahman termed the so-called movement launched by opposition parties as a futile exercise.

Leader of the Opposition and BNP Chairperson Begum Khaleda Zia addressing a rally at Azampur in the city's Uttara thana yesterday prior to the beginning of the opposition Road March (L), and Jatiya Party president H M Ershad addressing a gathering at Hasnabad under Keraniganj thana yesterday.
