Fifth Solo Exhibition of Harun-ur-Rashid

By Cultural Correspondent

ARTIST Harun-ur-Rashid organized a week long exhibition of collection of works at Alliance Francaise De Dhaka. Started from Friday July 23, 1999, the exhibition will remain open every day from 9 am to 8 pm till 29th of this month. From among his collections done at home and abroad, thirty five paintings being displayed at the exhibition. His observation of the rural culture and the use of watercolor as a media of expression showed in the exhibition justifies his keen eye to the present condition of the villagers.

The exhibited works of the artist Harun-ur-Rashid reflects his imaginative and aesthetic use of design, color and line. The blending of these three elements have provided his works a new style of expression, sensuous and aesthetic senses.

Artist Harun-ur-Rashid, born at Jamalpur in the late 40's previously organized four solo art exhibitions of his works in Jamalpur only. This is his first solo in Dhaka. Earning his Bachelor degree from the Institute of Fine Arts, University of Dhaka in 1964, he took part in the Asian Biennials in 1998. He is currently working as the director of Fine Art School, Kishalaya Adarsha Shishu Biddalaya at Jamalpur.

From Memory-13, watercolour, 1998

The exhibited works of the artist conveys his maturity of the use of colors, sap green and burnt ceana. Mixing the two colors he produces different shades of colors. The ubiqui-tion use of the green in his work represents his deep attachment towards the nature. Tough an impressionist, but his rough brush strokes and the abstraction conveys the hard-ship of the rural life.

The British Animation Film Week

The third day offers a gamut of brilliant films

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

THE third day of The British Animation Film Week was almost house-full like the other two days. The heavy rains and thundershower could not stop enthusiastic audience from coming to see these brilliant animated films. People of all ages came to experience these drawings and computer graphics come to life.

Organized by the British Council, the weeklong film festival is being held at The British Council auditorium, Dhaka.

Starting from documentary to comedy, around twenty-eight films are going to be screened at the festival. All these animated films are not more than 15 minutes in length. Each session ran around 5-6 films. Different varieties of animation works are observed at the festival. Some are computer animations and some are free hand drawing animations. All the strange looking peoples and objects of these films impressed the audience.

Yesterday the second show of the day started with the film 'A is for Autism', a eleven-minute animated documentary' featuring the autistic people and offering an insight into their condition. A new media in animation films was experienced in director Darren Walsh's 'mask animated' film 'Oozat'. Identity crisis was experienced throughout the film. Drinking with his friends at the bar and fraternizing with the opposite sex, a man's innocent face is shown in the movie. Live actors with some interesting mask animations are observed throughout the movie. 'Door', an exceptional film directed by David Anderson started after the mask animation. Incredible range of animation techniques from model animation and pixillation in outdoor locations to animated photographs. Mark Barker's 'The Village' was another extraordinary presentation in the festival. The daily life of the village cannot be experienced from outside. It seems calm and peaceful. But looking closely into lives of the people dwelling in the village gives us the proper insight. 'The Village' is a story of greed, gossip, theft and romance.

The weeklong animated film week will end its Dhaka session on the July 28. The festival will begin at Chittagong on the 31 of this month.
