Udichi's Latest Production

'Chile Kothar Sepai' enchants the audience

By Cultural Correspondent

ALMOST after two years of staging 'Shuroo Timur', the cultural group Udichi staged the premiere show of the drama 'Chile Kothar Sepai' at the Mahila Samity Auditorium yesterday. Based on the historical 'Gana Andolon' of '69, the drama portrays only few sequences from the original manuscript written by the famous author Akter-uz-Zaman Elias.

'Chile Kothar Sepai' a historical drama relating the devastation of the city dwellers in 1969. The cruelty of Ayub Khan towards the ordinary and innocent people of Bangladesh, his strict and harsh military rule and the uprising revolution of the Bangladesh people against him, the historical Agartala case, great nation leader Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the fierceness and the patriotism among the students, the dream of liberation and the suffering of the victims of the unliberated Bangladesh influenced a lot of people to come forward and take part in the fight for the motherland.

Influenced by his patriotic heart Osman, played by Prabir Sardar, takes part in the war. Osman is a bachelor from a middle class family and lives in the old Dhaka. Feeling the sufferings of the victims and the cruelty of Pak soldiers, his mind betrayed against them. But yet the conflict between the love and hate, his affection and hostility, joy and sorrow weakens his mental stability and soon loses his mental balance.

Communist Anwar encourages the patriotic and revolutionary mind of Osman. But such a person like Anwar are so few in numbers. Penniless Khijir was also a trusted friend of Osman. Khijir always encourage him to come out of his room and showed him the solution to the unrest political situation of that time. All this encouraged Osman to come out and search for the independent Bangladesh.

The drama is slightly different from the actual story of the famous novel 'Chile Kothar Sepai' by Akter-uz-Zaman. The drama stages only the part concerning the city from the novel.

Dramatising a performance from a novel is a very hard task. The hard work and the determination of the Udichi members made it possible. The hard perseverance and delicate direction of Kamal Uddin Kabir, Ratan Siddique's extraordinary playwright, outstanding performance of the performers including Prabir Sardar as Osman, Atiqul Islam as Ranju, Tanveer Hasan as Khijir, Amit Ranjan De as Anwar and all the members in front of and behind the scene contributed their best to achieve the success as an outstanding drama.

by Navine Murshid

KAY Kraft's inclination to promote fashion designing resulted in launching a programme called, 'Young Designers of the Millennium'. Enthusiasts of no previous experience are encouraged to participate and try out their luck. In doing so, Kay Kraft hopes to reach out to prospective individuals who wish to become designers.

A prerequisite to application is that they should not be working or professional fashion designers. There are no limitations in terms of academic background either.

Interested parties are requested to collect entry forms, free of cost, from Kay Kraft outlets in Gulshan, Sobhanbagh, Malibagh or Shyamoli. Once the entry forms are filled and submitted, each applicant will be called in and asked to discuss about their product design and concept. A primary selection will be conducted based on this meet. Selected participants will be asked to design and produce four products, the cost of which will be borne by Kay Kraft. The aspirant designers would not be paid, but the credits would be given to each participant.

After completion of all the dresses Kay Kraft will hold an exhibition where the dresses will be displayed. The dresses will become property of Kay Kraft. Credits of design and concept would, however, go to individual designers. The 'Best Product' category award will be given to three designers in a ceremony, following the exhibition.

This initiative may prove to be vital in the fashion arena, especially because there are no academic schools that provide courses in fashion designing. Kay Kraft plans to hold such occasions every once or twice a year. If they can stick to their plans, this would allow the customers to get used to a changing and growing fashion industry.
